August 6 – Angelus –Translated conclusion (August 6, 2017, Vatican.va).

May our Mother and the Mother of God help us to be in harmony with the Word of God, so that Christ may become light and lodestar throughout our life. Let us entrust to her the holidays of all, so that they may be peaceful and fruitful, but above all the summer of those who cannot go on holiday due to impediments of age, to reasons of health or of work, to economic restrictions or other problems, so that it may be a time of eased tension, gladdened by the presence of friends and of happy moments.

August 13 – Angelus –Translated conclusion (August 13, 2017, Vatican.va).

May the Virgin Mary help us to remain steadfast in the faith, to resist life’s tempests, to remain on the barque of the Church by shunning the temptation to embark on the seductive but insecure boats of ideologies, fashions and slogans.

August 23 – General Audience: “We are People of Spring more than Autumn” (full text) – Translated extract (August 23, 2017, Zenit.org).

Beloved, let us raise our gaze to Heaven to contemplate the splendor of the Holy Mother of God, whom we remembered last week in her Assumption, and whom we invoked yesterday as our Queen. Cultivate a sincere devotion to her, so that she is by your side in your daily existence.

August 24 – Vatican II’s Liturgy: a “school of prayer” (68th National Italian Liturgical Week) –Translated Extract (August 24, 2017, Zenit.org).

Let us entrust ourselves to Mary, Queen of the Apostles, Mother of the Church. She was in the Upper Room next to Peter when the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles and spurred them to go out to proclaim to all that Jesus is Lord. Today may our Mother sustain us and accompany us through her intercession, so that we may fully realize that unity and that communion for which Christ and the Apostles prayed and gave their lives.

For this reason, a Christian, like the Virgin Mary, keeps alive the flame of falling in love: in love with Jesus.
