New York Attorney Paul D. Seghers, nationally known authority on taxes, will review current developments in the field to open the fourth annual Institute on Federal Taxation Oct. 30 at Hotel Miami.

Seghers, who appeared last year on the University of Dayton-sponsored three-day program, is founder, past and current president of the Federal Tax Forum. He has lectured on taxation at seven universities, has published writing in eight journals and is a former editor of Prentice-Hall's Federal Tax Service.
