A Buffett Lunch

10.24.2011 | Students, Business

So what's Warren Buffett really like? Down-to-earth and funny, according to four students from the Davis Center for Portfolio Management who talked to Bloomberg Radio's Kathleen Hays Monday, Oct. 24, about their visit with the 'Oracle from Omaha.'

The students also also talked with Hays about the $13 million portfolio of the University endowment they manage through the Davis Center and next year's R.I.S.E. Forum. Hays, who moderated last year's keynote day, will be returning next year to moderate the first day of the forum, March 29.

Twenty Davis Center students traveled to Omaha Oct. 21 to meet Buffett, ask him questions, tour Berkshire Hathaway and pose for photos. And he picked up the tab for lunch.

The interview is available online as a free podcast at Bloomberg Radio (url: <http://www.bloomberg.com/podcasts/hays-advantage/>).
