News Release

1989 ELDERHOSTEL PROGRAM AT UD WILL FOCUS ON 'AVIATION HERITAGE'

DAYTON, Ohio, April 10, 1989--"Aviation Heritage" is the topic of this summer's 1989 Elderhostel program at the University of Dayton, sponsored by University Continuing Education. The program will be held July 16-22, the week before the Dayton International Air Show.

Elderhostel, a program for adults 60 and older, aims to expand and broaden participants' horizons through short-term academic programs at educational institutions throughout the world.

The Wright Brothers, flight history, innovation and invention will be some of the topics studied by hostellers at UD. Elderhostel also includes visits to the Air Force Museum, the National Aviation Hall of Fame and the International Women's Air and Space Museum.

Cost of the program is $240, which includes lodging, meals, classes and activities. UD has four "hostelships" available for people who would not be able to attend Elderhostel without financial assistance.

Enrollment is limited and applications are now being accepted. For registration information, contact University Continuing Education at UD at (513) 229-2347.
