MARCH 22: STUDENT FORUM ADDRESSES ETHICS IN BUSINESS

Dayton area business leaders and University of Dayton students will address the role of professional ethics in the corporate world at a forum on Thursday, March 22, at 7:30 p.m. in Chudd Auditorium in Wohlleben Hall on campus. The event, which is free and open to the public, is sponsored by Delta Sigma Pi, UD's professional business fraternity.

Participants include Thomas Danis, chief executive officer of Danis Industries; Al Snyder, senior vice president of Miller/Valentine Construction; Jon Talton, business editor of the Dayton Daily News; Jim Broering, senior managing partner at Arthur Andersen and Company; and the Rev. James Heft, UD provost. Students from religious studies, biology and business disciplines will also participate in the discussion.

For information, contact Bob McDaniel at (513) 223-1496.

MARCH 23-24: LAW STUDENTS ARGUE IN MOOT COURT COMPETITION

Students from 22 law schools across the country will test their oratory skills March 23-24 as part of the 11th annual National Administrative Law Moot Court competition, sponsored by the University of Dayton and Callaghan & Company.

Preliminary rounds will be held from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday, March 23, and from 9 to 11 a.m. Saturday, March 24, at the Montgomery County Courts Building, 41 N. Perry St. Semifinal and final rounds will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. and 4 to 6 p.m. respectively, on Saturday, March 24, at the Federal District Court Building, 200 W. Second St. The competition will conclude with an awards ceremony on Saturday, March 24, at 6 p.m. in the Federal Building. The competition will be judged by Stephen F. Williams III, circuit court of appeals judge, District of Columbia; Walter H. Rice, federal district court judge for the southern district of Ohio; and William S. Jordan III, administrative law professor, University of Akron.
