Quote Of the Week

What is important is how well we love. God will make our love fruitful, whether we see that fruitfulness or not.
Henri Nouwen

Hospitality Ministry: A Simple and Impactful Ministry

One of my favorite poems, "The Invitation" written by Oriah Mountain Reader, closes with, "It doesn't interest me who you are, or how you came to be here - I want to know if you will stand in the center of the fire with me and not shrink back."

When I read this poem, I think of what it feels like to sit in Mass and feel comfortable and at home. It is important to welcome strangers and accept all into our community. This is our Chapel, and we want it to be full of joy on Sunday, which is why our growing Hospitality Ministry is so important!

Hospitality Ministry is actually encouraged by the Catholic Church. You might have greeters or ushers at your home parish. When new people enter into a church, most decide in the first five minutes if they will ever come back. Hospitality is manifested in a warm and open spirit; a willingness to drop what we are doing and receive another person when they need us.

We hope you will consider serving as a Hospitality Minister this school year! It is quite simple: arrive 15 minutes early to Mass to provide friendly greetings, distribute worship aids, and complete a couple other hospitality gestures. It is a simple ministry but also quite a meaningful ministry.

If you would like to become a part of this growing ministry, please sign up at any of our upcoming Liturgical Minister Training Formations or contact Katie Mathews at mathewsk1@udayton.edu

Marianist Vocations Office on Campus

Discerning God's call can be exciting and sometimes overwhelming. Let us help you! Sister Nicole Trahan, a Marianist sister, is now working in the Vocations Office in Alumni Hall 225, Monday - Friday mornings 8:45am - 10:45am and in the afternoons and evenings by appointment. Please stop by to say hello and chat for a while.

Save The Date!

This year's First Discernment Evening will be Friday, September 13 at 312 Stonemill. Fr. Jim Schimelpfening will present "Discernment: Listening to the Voice Within." Discernment evenings begin with evening prayer, followed by supper. For more information and to RSVP, please contact Sr. Nicole Trahan at ntrahan1@udayton.edu
