HOW I LEAD AS AN INDIVIDUAL

Offers insight into individual leadership strengths and roles, along with the importance of effective communication and intercultural awareness.

HOW TO CONTINUE MY JOURNEY

Sets leadership goals and develops understanding of how to intentionally influence and inspire others for the good of the University.

AT THE END OF THE PROGRAM, PARTICIPANTS REPORTED AN INCREASED UNDERSTANDING OF:

UD systems that can help influence change

Their own leadership strengths

Building relationships and community

Cultural and intercultural competence

UD's Catholic, Marianist mission and identity

» Leadership UD has opened my eyes to new opportunities in which I can contribute and make a major impact on campus.

» I learned about myself and my leadership style. But more important, I learned relationships, partnerships and collaboration with other departments are key in accomplishing goals.

» Leadership UD helped me to frame my leadership competencies more clearly in light of Marianist administration and within intercultural perspectives.

ASSOCIATES PROGRAM

We recognize that leadership is a continuous journey. That's why we created programming for associates: graduates of the Leadership UD fellows program.

360 LUD Associates (2000-17)

- » 267 staff | 93 faculty
- » 151 male | 209 female

There were 278 session attendees; participants came from all 17 cohort years.

2016-17 Associates Sessions

- » Interior Lives of Exemplary Lay Leaders with Savio Franco
- » Accreditation Update with Carolyn Roecker Phelps
- » Engagement in Democratic Society through Marianist Lens with Bro. Ray Fitz, Sr. Laura Leming and Joe Valenzano
- » Strategic Visioning with Eric Spina and Michelle Pautz
- » Enrollment Management Update with Jason Reinoehl

- » The Role of the Dean with Kevin Kelly and Andy Strauss
- » Diversity and Inclusion with Larry Burnley and Patty Alvarez

» Leadership UD has been a great learning opportunity for me and really helps me feel more connected.

» I appreciate very much that LUD 'graduates' continue to have varied opportunities to grow.

» The programming is very useful in helping me to have a better picture of the University as a whole and how my little corner of UD fits in with the rest.
