& 6TH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
ON THE RIGHT TO DEVELOPMENT

DECOLONIZATION AND DEVELOPMENT FOR AFRICA AND PEOPLE OF AFRICAN DESCENT

UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON DAYTON, OHIO
NOVEMBER 2-4, 2023

As we mark the 75th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), we will reflect on the growing discourse on decolonization and development in relation to the social practice of human rights, which centers the approaches of diverse communities, including activism, organizing, communications, artistic expressions, and reflective conversations.

We welcome contributions that focus on the following sub-themes or any related topic:

- Inclusive development
- Social transformation, movements, and resistance
- Climate change and sustainability
- Belonging in Africa and for People of African Descent

We especially encourage workshops, roundtables, and panels that bridge coalition thinking by placing scholars, policy designers, practitioners, artists, and activists in a space of engagement.
