This Brochure is brought to you for free and open access by the University Libraries at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Reports and Promotional Materials by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mSchlangen1@udayton.edu.
Bring your FlyerCard to the library because you will need it to get in after 10 p.m. and to checkout books and study room keys.

Have peace, quiet and privacy. Study rooms are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Study alone or with a group. Check availability at the circulation desk in the lobby.

We have the technology you need. Computers, printers, copiers and scanners are available for use. Digital cameras, Flip video cameras and Kindle e-book readers are available for checkout.

From September to April, the library is open 127 hours a week and is open 24 hours a day at the end of each semester. Call 937-229-4221 for current hours or visit udayton.edu/libraries/hours.php.
TEXTBOOKS ARE NOT AVAILABLE AT THE LIBRARY. Please visit the University of Dayton Bookstore for your course textbook needs.

MOVE IT TO USE IT. Our group study spaces have mobile chairs and tables that can adapt to group study or work needs. Meet your group at the library and be productive!

BE INSPIRED. Art created by students and professionals is on display throughout the library. Visit our gallery spaces on the first and seventh floors to enjoy the featured art exhibit.

SNACKING WHILE STUDYING? Food and drink are permitted in many areas of Roesch Library. If you order food, please meet the delivery person in the lobby. Vending machines are located on the second floor. Be sure to dispose of any leftover food or trash.

WANT TO WORK WITH US? View job postings for University Libraries and apply online at jobs.udayton.edu.

We have over 1 million print and electronic books and access to 10,000 print and e-journals. Can’t find what you need for your research? We often borrow resources from other libraries.

JUST ASK US! We are here to help you succeed.
We value your things, too. Don’t leave anything unattended in the library. Our staff place VIRTUALLY STOLEN cards on unattended items as a friendly reminder.

Good stuff on the ground floor. Test out the latest technology and get help with multimedia projects at the Media Arcade. Stop by the Blend, a student-run coffee shop featuring specialty drinks, tea, coffee and pastries.

INTRODUCING UDiscover: Find journal articles, books, and more – all with one search! UDiscover is a search box that lets you retrieve all types of research sources with one search. If you’re looking for a variety of sources on your topic, or you’re just getting started, use UDiscover to access more information at once than ever before.

Also on the libraries website: Browse the databases by subject to find what you need. Renew books and check your library account.
THE MARIAN LIBRARY has diverse collections that can be used for research projects and assignments in religious studies, but also art history, language, cultural studies and more. Come to the seventh floor of Roesch Library weekdays between 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. for beautiful artwork and religious resources – staff, books, articles, archives – all with a great view of the campus and Dayton!

UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES AND SPECIAL COLLECTIONS, located on the second floor of Albert Emanuel Hall, documents University of Dayton history with photographs, memorabilia, official records and more. Our SPECIAL COLLECTIONS highlight sports, the arts, politics and the pursuits of UD alumni. Although this material is not available for check out, the reading room is open weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4:30 p.m.

Our eclectic RARE BOOKS COLLECTION includes manuscripts as well as early and limited edition books. Rare Books are open to visitors by appointment.

The U.S. CATHOLIC COLLECTION, located on the third floor of Roesch Library, documents the American Catholic experience and is open weekdays from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., or by appointment.

COPYING and SCANNING

CAN I GET REFUNDS?
No, you cannot get a refund. If your document does not print at all, ask for help. In some instances, the library staff may reprint your document at no charge. If the printer damages the paper or the printing is illegible, take the print to any staff member for assistance.

COPYING Copy machines are located in the lobby, the first floor reference room, and the second floor. Copies are 5 cents per page.

SCANNING Scanners are located next to computer workstations on the second floor and can handle materials up to 11 x 17 inches (A4 or B4). Scanning is free.

WE’RE HERE TO HELP.
If you need assistance using the printers, copiers or scanners, just ask us!
