UD ALUMNI, FAMILIES, FRIENDS
JOIN FOR MORNING OF COMMUNITY SERVICE

DAYTON, Ohio — University of Dayton alumni, their families and friends will band together on Saturday, April 25, for UD Community Service Day '98.

Participants will meet for breakfast at 7:30 a.m. in the Kennedy Union food court and leave campus for various service projects at 8:30 a.m. Service opportunities include Habitat for Humanity, the Ronald McDonald House, Catholic Social Services, a River Corridor clean-up, Southern Dayton View, Edgement Solar Garden, Daybreak youth shelter and the Building Bridges organization.

After a morning of service, volunteers will return to Kennedy Union at 1:30 p.m. for lunch.

"The alumni in our Dayton chapter offer the Community Service Day as an extension of their student activities — the tradition of service and partnership that is so distinctive about the UD experience," says organizer Kathy Harmon, assistant director of alumni relations. More than 18,000 UD alumni live in the Miami Valley.

To register or for more information, call UD's Alumni House at (937) 229-3299.

UD Community Service Day '98 is sponsored by the Dayton chapter of UD's National Alumni Association and the Student-Alumni Council.
