MARIAN LIBRARY STUDIES

NEW SERIES (1969-)

Nature and Purpose

Published by the Marian Library and International Marian Research Institute, Marian Library Studies (New Series) is an annual research journal with works written in the major research languages; it is intended to foster original and scholarly studies on "the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, in the mystery of Christ and his Church" (Lumen gentium, Chap. 8).

The orientations and guidelines presented by Paul VI in Marialis cultus indicate the breadth and depth of the field of Marian studies—its doctrinal, biblical, liturgical, ecumenical, anthropological, and cultural dimensions. The editors of Marian Library Studies seek to integrate Marian studies in and with modern spheres of research:

- critical editions of texts;
- historical research and documentation;
- historical bibliography;
- comparative studies in religion, theology (especially Christology and ecclesiology), spirituality, iconography, archeology, religious anthropology, psychology, and sociology.

Of particular concern to the editors of Marian Library Studies is the encouragement of young and unpublished Marian scholars. Often, these individuals cannot easily find a publisher for their specialized research.
