Resolution to the Academic Senate

Title: Documentation of the Composition and Responsibilities of the Committee on Elections
Submitted by: Harry Gerla
Date: April 17, 2015

New Business:
Resolution on UD Committee on Elections: H. Gerla introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, that the Academic Senate recommends the Office of the Provost of the University of Dayton adopt the following documentation concerning the composition and responsibilities of the University of Dayton Committee on Elections.

Rationale: To document in writing the composition and responsibilities of the University of Dayton Committee on Elections. In addition to documenting the current responsibilities and practice of the committee, the Faculty Affairs Committee of the Academic Senate recommends that the composition of the Committee on Elections be expanded to include one member from the full-time, non-tenure track faculty.

The resolution was unanimously passed with one minor correction (26, 0, 0).
