NEWS TIPS

APRIL 10 - 14: UGLIEST UD STUDENT FAVORITE OF SPECIAL WISH

Eight University of Dayton students got ugly to help raise funds for the Make-A-Wish Foundation, a national nonprofit organization that grants wishes to children with life-threatening illnesses.

Participating in the University's Ugly Man contest, the students dressed badly or made faces for photographs, said student coordinator Shannon Lively. The photos are on display from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. daily through Friday, April 14, in the Kennedy Union lower level food court.

While the photos are up, UD students and staff are invited to vote for the ugliest photo by making a donation to Make-A-Wish. The student whose photograph garners the most donation money will be declared the winner and receive a prize, Lively said.

For more information, call Shannon Lively at (937) 229-1452.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12: NEW UD APARTMENT BUILDING OPENS FOR TOURS

This fall, 165 juniors and seniors will move into brand-new campus housing at the University of Dayton. With construction nearly completed, Lawnview Apartments, 201 Lawnview Ave. in the student neighborhood, will be open for tours for UD students, faculty and staff from noon to 4 p.m. Wednesday, April 12.

Visitors will see a typical two-bedroom apartment, meeting rooms, lobby, laundry facilities and lounges. The $7 million project will be open for summer conference housing this summer and for fall occupation by students in August.

For media interviews, contact Jack Dempsey or Judy Raines at (937) 229-3317. Raines will be at the apartments during the open house.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12: VIVA QUETZAL! BRINGS MUSIC AND MESSAGE TO UD

The musicians of Viva Quetzal! will bring their music and message of racial harmony to the University of Dayton in a series of activities on Wednesday, April 12, all in Kennedy Union Boll Theatre.

Members of the multicultural ensemble, known for spirited presentations of traditional and contemporary Latin American music, will open the festivities with a free and public workshop at 3 p.m. They'll share their culture and musical heritage and demonstrate several of the exotic and familiar instruments used to create their original blend of music.

At 7 p.m., the group will again discuss their background and the music for the evening concert in a free and public pre-concert lecture.

At 8 p.m. Viva Quetzal! will perform in concert as part of the UD Arts Series. For concert ticket prices, call the theater box office at (937) 229-2545. For workshop or concert information, call Arts Series coordinator Barbra Lupp at (937) 229-2787.
