L Vogt, S.M.

1. All hail O Virgin Mary, hail, Conceived in grace sin-free,
   Throughout the world you morning, noon and night,
   And strive to show to work-ing for your Son,
   Who give to you that are unique, Our hope and surety;
   God's all, your fame And keep it ever bright;
   Til true address Which Gabriel had begun,
   And spotless lily of the vale, God's queen of purity.

2. Our tongues pronounce your bles-sed name At evening, noon and night, And strive to show to work for your Son,
   Who give to you that are unique, Our hope and surety;
   God's all, your fame And keep it ever bright;
   Til true address Which Gabriel had begun,
   And spotless lily of the vale, God's queen of purity.

3. O Moth-er Mar-y, always bless Those
evening, noon and night, And strive to show to work for your Son,
   Who give to you that are unique, Our hope and surety;
   God's all, your fame And keep it ever bright;
   Til true address Which Gabriel had begun,
   And spotless lily of the vale, God's queen of purity.
