Quote Of the Week

A day of new redemption has dawned for us, a day prepared from antiquity, a day of eternal blessedness.
Pope St. Leo I, The Great

Callings

During the Easter season, we hear stories of Jesus appearing to the disciples. What follows is a call to share the good news of the resurrection. By baptism, we share in that call. But what does that call, or our vocation, look like today?

One perspective: "The place God calls you to is the place where your deep gladness and the world's deep hunger meet." Frederick Buechner

How do we get to that place? Some hints: Be still; listen, so that you can hear that still voice that whispers the truth to you. Spend time with people you admire and respect. Follow your passion(s) in ways that make the world a better place. And encourage others in their journey.

Do you have a friend, a younger sibling, a cousin who will start at UD in the fall? How would you like to help them dive into the heart and soul of the University of Dayton community before classes start? The Callings summer program is an amazing opportunity for incoming first year students to explore their own calling, their vocation as a student, and ways that we learn, lead, serve and pray at UD. There are aspects of retreat, leadership development, service and community engagement, and prayer integrated into a four day experience. Two sessions are offered: July 8-11 and July 15-18. More information and the online registration can be found on the Campus Ministry website, at pcl.udayton.edu. Questions?? Contact Maria Ollier Burkett, Program for Christian Leadership at 229-3997 or mburkett1@udayton.edu

Let Justice Take the Lead

April 30, 6:30pm St. Benedict the Moor Catholic Church

Join congregations of the Greater Dayton area as LEAD (Leaders for Equality & Action in Dayton) convenes for the Annual Nehemiah Action to ask our public officials for justice by adopting two specific policies. The first is a fair hiring policy, which will allow ex-offenders a fair chance to apply and be hired for jobs that they are qualified. The second increases access to jobs, education and healthcare by persuading Beavercreek City Council members to permit the RTA to stop near the Fairfield Commons Mall.

We will meet outside the front door of Marianist at 6pm and drive to the assembly at St. Benedict the Moor Catholic Church. Please email us at LEAD.UDayton@gmail.com to RSVP a seat in the van and/or learn more about this event!

Campus Ministry Photo Contest

Got a photo that captures your experience of Campus Ministry here at UD? How about your immersion, volunteer, service, or study abroad experience? Submit it to the annual Campus Ministry photo contest! We are looking for photos that characterize things you have done, experiences you have had (on campus and off), people you have met, lessons you learned, sights you saw, or just cool photos you want to show off. Winning photos will be displayed in Liberty Hall through next year. If you win, you will receive the enlarged copy of your photo (after it has been hanging for 1 year).

Submit a 4x6 print or electronic copy of your photo. Write your name, phone, and e-mail address on the back, and digital size if you know it (or include that info in an email). Send photos to Crystal Sullivan at csullivan1@udayton.edu or drop them off at Liberty Hall 101. Deadline for submission is April 25. By submitting photos, you also agree that Campus Ministry may use them in printed material or web-media.
