News Release #67-21
Congressman Charles W. Whalen, Jr. today was named to two subcommittees of the House Armed Services Committee.

They are subcommittee number three, which deals mainly with research and development, and a special subcommittee on tactical aircraft procurement.

Both areas relate to major activities at Wright-Patterson Air Force base, including the Air Force Systems Command agencies and Air Force Logistics Command.

Whalen was appointed to the Armed Services Committee last week. It is responsible for reviewing the requests of the Defense Department.
