

1-1-1960

Pallottine vocation brochure

The Society of the Catholic Apostolate

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/imri_stokes_vocation

Part of the Catholic Studies Commons

Recommended Citation

The Society of the Catholic Apostolate, "Pallottine vocation brochure" (1960). Vocation Brochures. 13.
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/imri_stokes_vocation/13

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Catholic Organizations and Publications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Vocation Brochures by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.

Think

Pray

Love

Put It All Together

THINK!

You have become a person!
Through all the years of your education, you have seen
People whose hands stretch out for help...
People whose stomachs cry out for food...
People whose minds search for truth...
People whose hearts reach out for love...

You have become a person...
You want to respond to them!
Vincent Pallotti saw like needs in his time and he responded. A group of priests and laymen of similar interests joined him and became known as Pallottines.

You face THE question of your life:
"Now that I am a person, what do I do?"
When you don't ponder the question, it gnaws away at your mind. When you do, you become afraid of the answer.
You recognize God as your Creator and you turn to Him and ask: "What do you want me to do for you?"

Prayer

Pallotti and his companions
knew the importance of prayer.
They knew that personal reflection with God was as important as the planning of Christian action.
In order to live these ideals, they united themselves as a working and praying community by promising to dedicate themselves to the real needs of the people around them.

Because you were kind, the knot in the other person's stomach unraveled. You were able to skip over the mistakes and bloopers and the things done wrong; you went right to their heart and said: "Not only are you acceptable, but you are loveable."

The person looks at you and knows you mean it, because you are sincere. You have touched one of mankind's and one of God's "special People." You feel you have done something that tells you why you have been born. And you pray to Him again: "you want me to do this for your people — Allright Lord, just how do I do it?"

People still wonder why young men leave their families to join a community of strangers;

— or give up their comfortable homes, to live in strange places;

— or turn away from great financial job opportunities, to take up work with the poor, the hurt and the rejected!

But a man who has an inkling to serve Christ knows why: they are the people Christ loves.

You've thought about helping others. You've prayed to know what to do. You want your love to be shown to these people.

You have all these talents and we would like to invite you to put them all together with 2,100 Pallottines; whether it be helping the poor in a Brooklyn ghetto or in an African mission; whether it means helping adults deepen their faith or helping young people learn more about it; whether it be in a retreat house or in a school; whether it be pacing over books or praying in chapel.

We invite you to put your gifts together with ours for His people.

ALL
PUT TOGETHER

Name

Age

Address

City/State/Zip

Phone No.

Grade

☐ High School Graduate

☐ College Graduate

Please send more information:

I wish to learn more about the Pallottines

Director of Vocations
The Society of the Catholic Apostolate
Pallottine Fathers & Brothers
P.O. Box 32
Collingswood, N.J. 08108

FIRST CLASS

Permit No. 10017

Baltimore, Md.

BUSINESS REPLY MAIL

No postage stamp necessary if mailed in the United States

Postage will be paid by:

Vocation Director

Pallottine Fathers & Brothers

P.O. Box 32

Collingswood, N.J. 08108

