THE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

1. RETROSPECT AND PROSPECT:
The first organized program of graduate work at University of Dayton was set up in the summer of 1939. It was modest in its beginnings, being limited to offerings in the fields of Education and English. This summer program was continued immediately in the regular school year of 1939-40, with an additional field in Philosophy. The faculty and students of the new unit formed a distinct division, having its own administration and its own objectives within the general framework of the educational policies of the University.

In the summer of 1942 the offerings of the Graduate Division were further extended to include the fields of Economics and Psychology, and in January of 1943 Political Science was added.

The content, policies, and scope of the graduate work at the University of Dayton grew out of the discussions and under the guidance of the Graduate Council of Ohio, particularly those held at Columbus in 1939, and out of the needs and demands of students in the Dayton area.

In this form the graduate division of the University carried on a successful program of work until 1949, when it was temporarily discontinued by the University on its own initiative, in order to devote all its facilities and personnel to the rapidly expanding undergraduate enrollment that flooded the campus after World War II.

During the period from 1945 to 1956, the University, therefore concentrated its efforts on strengthening the undergraduate program in its faculties and faculty, having in view at all times the resumption of graduate work at the earliest possible date.

In 1956-57 a searching self-survey of the University was conducted, followed by an intensive program of self-improvement over the succeeding years, that gave ground for taking up again, with prudence and discretion, the kind of advanced work which the very name 'University' connotes.

Accordingly, with clearance from the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and with the authorization of the State Department of Education of Ohio, the graduate work of the University of Dayton was re-activated in the summer of 1960, with three distinct programs in the field of Education, leading toward a Master of Science in Education degree.

The University of Dayton did not intend by this action to limit its graduate work to that one field. It purposes, with the publication of this Bulletin, to expand its graduate offerings and, in fact, to organize, by degrees, a Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. This venture will be inaugurated by those departments which have been cleared for advanced work through a rigorous investigation by a Committee on Graduate Studies, specifically created for that purpose. In the following pages, the Departments that are ready for graduate work present programs that will be launched, for the most part, in the summer session of 1961 or in the school year of 1961-1962.
II. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE:
A graduate school should have an end or purpose that distinguishes it from every other type or level of educational institution.

Through its faculty, it seeks to create and maintain an academic atmosphere that is essential to graduate work. Its influence, therefore, extends first to its own membership, by promoting all forms of scholarly activity.

It labors further to give to its students a thorough grasp of a chosen field of knowledge, special skills in methods of research, and sharpened powers of independent thought. Under the guidance and inspiration of a scholarly staff, students are given the constant use of library, laboratories, and other educational facilities. Above all, a graduate student is expected to bring marked initiative to his work and to assume full responsibility for the progress of his studies. The courses of instruction can be no more than the point of departure and a basis for wide reading and personal investigation.

The number of credit hours demanded for a graduate degree is merely the material requirement; the form and substance of graduate work are conceived as the mastery of a subject-matter with understanding of its relations to kindred branches of knowledge.

In short, graduate work, for the student at the University of Dayton, has for its purpose an integrated program of advanced study based on adequate undergraduate preparation in a field of study with other supporting fields; it presupposes academic and personal maturity and makes more than average demand upon the initiative, the industry, and the scholarship of the candidates for an advanced degree.

III. ADMISSION:
1. General Conditions For All Degrees:
Graduates with the degree of bachelor from an accredited college or university will be considered for admission to the Graduate School. Applicants must have a minimum 2.75 average, on the basis of a four point system, for their overall undergraduate record, and a 3.0 average in their major field of study.

2. Classification of Students After Admission:
A. Regular students: Those who have met satisfactorily all general and specific requirements of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences and of the Department in which the student is accepted.

B. Special students, including:
a. Those on conditional status, that is to say, applicants who must fulfill some pre-requisite imposed by the Graduate School, or by the Department, before their admission to regular status.

b. Auditors, that is, properly qualified students who wish to follow graduate courses without working toward a degree. Auditors may be admitted to graduate courses with the permission of and under the conditions required by the instructor. Tuition for auditors is the same as for regular students. No academic credit is allowed for auditing courses.

c. Those properly qualified students working toward a degree in another institution who are authorized by the Dean of that institution to take specific courses at the University of Dayton, for transfer of credit. Such students must satisfy all the registration requirements in the given course that are mandatory for students working toward a degree at the University of Dayton.

3. Degrees:
The Graduate School of Arts and Sciences offers advanced studies leading to a degree of MASTER OF ARTS and MASTER OF SCIENCE. Candidates for these degrees may choose to pursue graduate work in the Departments having courses listed in the following pages of this Bulletin.

4. Specific Requirements For All Degrees:
A. Course Requirements: All Departments offer a program variously distributed in time, leading to the Master's degree. Depending upon the Department, candidates may qualify for this degree either by completing successfully twenty-four credit hours and submitting an acceptable thesis, or by completing successfully thirty credit hours in course work, in accordance with the conditions outlined under departmental requirements.

B. Residence Requirement: Residence is interpreted and required in terms of a regular academic year (two semesters of a full-time schedule of twelve credit hours), or in terms of four summer sessions. Students must be in residence while writing a thesis. Neither course work nor thesis will be given by correspondence. In short, residence requirements call for the equivalent of time normally demanded by the successful completion of twenty-four credit hours of graduate work.

C. Time Limit: All requirements for a Master's Degree must be satisfied within seven calendar years from the time of admission to full graduate status.

D. Graduate Work in Other Institutions: Graduate work completed successfully at other recognized institutions may be offered in partial fulfillment of course requirements, with the approval of the Dean of the Graduate School and the Chairman of the Department. Students must submit an official transcript of credits before requesting recognition and approval of transfer credits for strictly graduate courses; not more than six credits can be allowed in transfer*. Transfer of credits will be accepted only provisionally until the student has successfully completed twelve credits of graduate work at the University of Dayton. Every case of transfer of graduate work at the University of Dayton will be handled on an individual basis, as determined by the Chairman of the Department and approved by the Dean of the Graduate School.

E. Language Requirement: A reading knowledge of a foreign language may be required for a Master's degree, at the discretion of the Department. Language courses for the convenience of graduate students can be had by special arrangement on a class or tutorial basis, through the Director of the Evening Classes. No graduate credit is allowed for the fulfillment of language requirements.

*During the initial year of operation of any program, exceptions to this limitation may be made with the approval of the Dean of the Graduate School.
F. Grades and Examinations: Marks are expressed on the student's permanent record by the following letter grades:

<table>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Quality Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Graduate students must maintain a general 3-point average to be eligible for candidacy and for the comprehensive examination.

G. Admission to Candidacy: It is the student's responsibility to apply for admission to candidacy. Application blanks may be obtained from the Dean's office. Application for admission to candidacy shall be made as soon as the student has successfully completed twelve hours of graduate courses and has fulfilled all the requirements heretofore mentioned.

H. Comprehensive Examinations: A comprehensive examination is required by all Departments for the Master's degree. The examination may be oral or written, or both, as required by the Chairman of the student's major department. Applications for all comprehensive examinations must be approved by the Chairman of the Department at least two weeks prior to the examination. Students who fail in a comprehensive examination may, on the recommendation of the Chairman of the Department, be admitted to a second examination, but not sooner than the next semester or summer session, and not later than one calendar year. If a second examination is unsatisfactory, no further trial can be admitted.

I. Thesis: In those departments requiring a thesis or an equivalent project, the work may not be undertaken without the approval of the Chairman or of an advisor delegated by the Chairman. Students must be in residence while writing a thesis. Both the form and the content of the thesis must have the approval of three members of the Department, including the faculty advisor and the Chairman.

Three final copies of an approved thesis in correct form must be submitted by the student to the Dean's Office on or before the date specified in the Graduate School calendar.

Theses may not be published, in whole or in part, without the approval of the Graduate School.

J. Withdrawal: Any withdrawal or change of course after the last date of late registration is allowed only with the written permission of the Chairman of the Department. Such change of course or withdrawal must be filed with each office that has a record of the student's admission form.

The Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences reserves the right to review at intervals the work of its graduate students, and, in consultation with the Chairman of the Department, to recommend that those who are not doing work of a high caliber be advised to discontinue courses leading to a degree.

K. Separation from the University: Separation from the University may follow upon graduation, withdrawal by the student, or dismissal.

The admission of candidates, their continuance and status, the awarding of academic credits, and the granting of a degree, are all subject to the ordinary regulatory powers of the University. It reserves the right to cancel, at its discretion, any of these privileges for reasons considered sufficient by its own governing body.

The disciplinary authority of the University is vested in the President by right, and in the Deans and other officers on whom jurisdiction may be conferred for specific cases and in restricted areas. For graduate students, this authority may be exercised on a delegated basis by the Dean of the Graduate School and his Committee.

L. Transcripts of Records: For transcripts of records, application should be made to the Office of the Registrar of the University. Transcripts are issued only as requested by the student. In normal periods of the calendar year, excluding principally registration or examination periods, a time allowance of a week should be made for the preparation of a transcript. The first copy requested after graduation will be issued gratis. For each additional record, a fee of $1.00 will be charged.

IV. ROUTINE PROCEDURES:

1. APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION:

A. Inquiries concerning admissions and requests for application forms should be addressed to the Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences.

B. The application blank should be filled out completely and returned promptly to the Office of the Dean of the Graduate School.

C. In addition to the application form, a prospective student should provide these documents:

   a. A transcript or transcripts of all his undergraduate and graduate work, mailed directly to the Registrar of the institution where this work was done, to the Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences.

   b. If necessary, supplementary transcripts showing completion of work by senior undergraduates who have made application for admission before obtaining a degree.

   c. Three letters of recommendation from persons qualified to judge the candidate as a prospective graduate student. These letters should be mailed directly to the Dean of the Graduate School.

   d. Scores on the general aptitude and major subject sections of the Graduate Record Examinations. Students lacking such documents can obtain the service of a Graduate Record Examination at the University of Dayton in the Guidance Center, St. Mary's Hall, Room 403-22, at times indicated in the Bulletin of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences.

2. ADDITIONAL PROCEDURES FOR FOREIGN STUDENTS:

Qualified students from foreign countries may be admitted to the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences to follow courses for which they are prepared, and, if found capable, to pursue a program leading to a degree. In addition to the information required of all students, the foreign student must submit with his application for admission: (1) a statement from a qualified official that the applicant can read, write, speak, and understand English sufficiently to pursue a program of graduate work in the field of his choice (exception being made for those whose native language is English); (2) a statement certified by a responsible person or group that his finances... are sufficient to maintain him while in residence; (3) a statement by a responsible medical authority certifying to the student's physical, mental, and emotional balance adequate for the work he intends to undertake.

3. Deadlines for Applications:

The application for admission to the Graduate School should be submitted to the Dean not later than August 15th for the fall semester, by January 1st for the spring semester, and by May 12th for the summer session.

It is the responsibility of the student that his application, with all the necessary supporting documents, be complete and in order before the specified dates, if he is to be admitted to full status.

4. Notification of Acceptance and of Status:

Upon approval of his application, the student will receive an acceptance form, which he is to fill out and return to the Office of the Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. The full process of admission is not complete until the student has signed his concurrence with the conditions set down in this Bulletin, by attaching his signature to and returning the acceptance form.

Applicants to the Graduate School may be offered regular or special status. Details concerning the kinds of student status are given in this bulletin under the general title of ADMISSIONS, sub-title CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS, Section III, No. 2.

5. Registration is required of (a) all students who enter course work for credit; and (b) all students who wish to audit courses.

A. Registration Procedure: On receipt of notification of admission to the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, the student must consult with the Chairman of the Department in which he elects his major program of studies. The Chairman will issue a permit for the number and kind of courses for which the student may register.

B. Late Registration: Closing dates for late registration and change of schedule are listed in the academic calendar of this Bulletin.

6. Expenses:

A. General Information:

It is a general rule of the University that tuition and laboratory fees are payable before attendance at any instructional or laboratory period, unless exceptional arrangements have been made with the Business Manager of the University and cleared by him in writing through the Office of the Treasurer.

No student will be admitted to class without a class admission card.

All fees are subject to change at the discretion of the Trustees of the University.

Applications for refunds on any kind of fees will be given consideration only within the limits of time and amount set by the general rules of the University.

Where voluntary withdrawal, dismissal, illness, physical disability, or any extraordinary contingencies require a student to leave, he must notify the Dean of the Graduate School.

B. Veterans: Veterans admitted to the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences must submit with their formal registration the Certificate of Eligibility for studies by the V.A. under Title 38, United States Code. Lacking the necessary document applicable to his case, the prospective student must register as a non-veteran and pay the required tuition and fees.

Application for benefits under Title 38, United States Code, is made at the Veterans Administration in Cincinnati. Advice and consultation for veterans may be had at the Veterans Service Office of the University in St. Mary's Hall.

THE MASTER'S PROGRAM IN THEOLOGY

I. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE:
   The graduate program of Theology, leading to the degree of Master of Arts in that subject, is designed to satisfy the desire of religious and laity for a scientific training in sacred truth. It is of special value to teachers of Christian doctrine, for it provides them with a thorough grasp of the deep realities of Catholic theology, which is essential for effective teaching.

   With the truth of the Incarnation as its core, the program follows the traditional curriculum of Catholic theological study. Courses in related fields are likewise offered. Because of the Marianist tradition at the University of Dayton, the unique facilities afforded by the Marian Library, special programs will be offered in Mariology and the social apostolate. Thus the student will be given the opportunity for a deeper understanding of Catholic theology and an orientation toward his role in the Marian apstolate of the Church.

II. SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS OF THE DEPARTMENT:
   1. Undergraduate Prerequisites:
      Ordinarily, thirty hours of undergraduate theology and philosophy are required. At least eighteen hours must be in Theology.

   2. Use of Advanced Undergraduate Courses in the Graduate Program:
      Not more than six graduate semester credit hours of the student's total graduate program may be selected from designated upper-division courses. All four hundred courses except 405 and 406 are "designated upper-division courses."

   3. Obligatory Core Courses:
      Among the graduate courses, 500 and 501 are courses in "allied fields" and must be taken by all candidates for the Master's degree in Theology.

   4. Types of Programs and Specific Requirements of Each:
      The Department offers two programs leading to a Master of Arts in Theology:
      a. An Academic program: Twenty-four hours of content courses plus six hours for a thesis. The twenty-four hours must include six hours of core courses, twelve hours from a chosen field of concentration, and six hours from the other area of concentration. All who elect this program must have a reading knowledge of a foreign language (Latin, French, German, Italian, or Spanish) in order to pursue profitably the work of a thesis.

      b. A Professional program: Thirty hours of content courses with a monograph on a problem defined in a seminar, preferably toward the end of the student's graduate studies. The thirty hours ordinarily include six hours of core courses, fifteen hours from a chosen major field of concentration, and nine hours from the other area of concentration.

      The programs leading to a Master's degree in Theology will be offered only in the Summer Sessions. They can be completed in five Summer Sessions, and must be completed within seven calendar years.
