A few years ago, when the Marian Library Newsletter expanded to include more pages, a fresh design, and engaging stories on collections, exhibits, research, programs and people, it became much more than a newsletter — worthy of an identity all its own. Besides providing an annual report of successes and numbers, it gives readers a deeper connection with the Marian Library and a better understanding of the work its faculty, staff and volunteers have done since its founding 80 years ago. Today, we are excited to introduce the inaugural issue of Tidings: An Annual Communiqué from the Marian Library.
