PRAYER

O my God, as you have come to me when your Divine Son became Man, so I have come to you to be your child, when I was baptized.

You give yourself daily to me in our parish church. There I can come and be very close to you.

Help us to build a new church that will be truly worthy of your holiness, of your goodness, and of our love for you.

There, we pray, may our faith become stronger each year, and our hearts more devoted each time we will kneel before you. There we shall come to pray before your divine presence, knowing that the church is your house and our house, your tabernacle and our tabernacle, where you meet us and we meet you, where you give yourself to us, and we can give ourselves and our gifts to you. Truly, as members of your Mystical Body, O Jesus, you give us the privilege of being with you in your church and in your tabernacle, by day and by night. There we are really united mystically to you and to all other members of your Mystical Body. Help us, then, O God, to build this church with generous hearts and grateful wills, giving our best gifts to you. Lead us to sacrifice for you, as you have sacrificed for us upon the blood-stained Cross. Amen

Our Lady of Bel-Mont

The title, Our Lady of Bel-Mont, means "Our Lady of the Beautiful Hill or Mountain." Mary stands upon the Mount of Heaven to bestow upon us the graces won by Christ her Son upon the Cross. She prays for us and obtains His blessing for us. At the Shrine, besides the statue of Mary, are eight other figures, all carved of solid marble, at Pietra Santa, Italy. The figure of Mary shows her standing upon a cloud, having at her feet the moon. She is clothed in a queenly robe, and wears a crown upon her head. Her hands are extended to receive us. At her right side are figures of St. Joseph, her chaste spouse, and her holy parents, Sts. Ann and Joachim. At her left are figures of Pope Pius IX, who defined the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception, St. Bernadette Soubirous, to whom Mary declared at Lourdes, "I am the Immaculate Conception," and Pope Pius XII, who both defined the doctrines of the Assumption of Mary and established the Feast of her Universal Queenship. In the foreground are statues of St. Michael, Archangel, who defended Mary's honor against the attack of Satan (Apoc.12), and of St. Gabriel, Archangel, who brought to Mary (Luke 2) God's Message, that she was to become the Mother of the Savior.

To the right of the Shrine is a box for Petitions and Acknowledgement of Favors.

FOREWORD

The purpose of this book is to give a synoptic view of the events of the parish of Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception, Dayton, Ohio, during the first twenty-eight years of its existence.

We have thought that pictures often speak better than words. In many of the pictures the faces of some are absent because it was not possible to find a time when all could be present for the work of the photographer. To those not included we present our sincere apology, as well as to those whose work for the parish may not be adequately represented in this book by our oversight.

In presenting the pictures of those who embraced the priesthood or religious life we have limited our presentation to those who attended our parish school, or whose parents now live in the parish, where such parents chose to present us with pictures of their children. No doubt we have missed some, however, and again our apology.

The occasion of the publication of this book is, of course, the completion and dedication of our new church and rectory. We are deeply indebted to His Grace, the Most Reverend Karl J. Alter, D.D., LL.D., Archbishop of Cincinnati, for officiating at the dedication, and to him as well as to the Most Reverend Edward A. McCarthy, S.T.D., J.C.D., Auxiliary Bishop of Cincinnati, for their great interest and assistance in our building program, as well as to the former Auxiliary Bishop of Cincinnati, the Most Reverend Paul F. Leibold, J.C.D., now Bishop of Evansville, Indiana, for his assistance and advice, and for blessing and laying the cornerstone.

Recognition must also be given to Olan Mills Studio of Springfield, Ohio, for producing this book for us; to Mrs. Helen Sableski and Mrs. Maxine DeBrower for their assistance in directing the preparation of the family photos; to Fathers Daniel D. McKenzie and John J. Kaising, parish assistants, for editorial work contributed, and to the Sisters of Notre Dame and Rev. James Bartholomew, S.M., and many others, for their help in gathering historical material.

Dear Monsignor Sherman:

On this joyous and momentous occasion when the new Immaculate Conception Church is dedicated to the glory of God, to the honor of Our Lady, and for the salvation of souls, I send my cordial congratulations and blessing to you, to Fathers McKenzie and Kaising, to the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur, and to all the devoted members of Immaculate Conception Parish.

This church tells in stone and in brick and in the beauty of its appointments of the faith and devotion and the love and generous spirit of cooperation of the priests and people of the parish. Generations yet unborn will mark the anniversaries of this day of dedication with profound gratitude to you for having provided this magnificent house of worship.

The completion of the church marks the completion of the parish building program. The parish now has an excellent church, school, convent, and rectory, all of which has been realized in less than thirty years - a marvelous achievement. I look forward with pleasure to celebrating pontifical functions here on occasion.

May the Good Lord reward you and all of the parish abundantly, and may this new parish church, where the Divine Lord is present in the Eucharist and in liturgical services, in His word as it is preached from the pulpit, and among the holy people gathered together in His name, be ever a rich source of growth and holiness.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Harold J. Alter

Dear Monsignor Sherman.

I share with you and the Priests and Sisters and devoted members of the Parish the joy of this memorable occasion when the years of sacrifice and planning, of dreaming and of worrying, have now borne fruit in the form of your marvelous new parish church.

As you and your people begin to worship in this new edifice I am sure you are all aware that, beautiful as this material edifice is, its true value will be measured by the spiritual beauty and holiness of the congregation it shelters. Its purpose is to serve the continual building up of that nobler "church" made up of living stones - the Faithful who come as one body to worship here, to be holy people pleasing to God.

Here at the baptistry new members will be constantly introduced into this spiritual edifice of living stones. At the altar they will receive Eucharistic nourishment. As they hear the word of God preached from the ambo, they will grow in knowledge and in love. In these confessionals they will be restored to the spiritual communion with God and with one another, from which they may have been alienated by sin. Here the sacramental graces of matrimony will bless the creation of new families and new members of the holy body. From here, when death separates them from this earthly parish community, at funeral services the angels will lead them to paradise and the communion of saints in heaven.

May this building, made holy by the dedication ceremonies today, ever serve the nobler purpose of consecrating to Almighty God and to the love of each other the people who worship here.

Devotedly yours in Christ,

Edward A. Mc Carthy
Auxiliary Bishop of Cincinnati

CHURCH OF:

Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception

Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin
Mary into Heaven, August 15, 1966

My dear Parishioners:

Soon we shall celebrate the day of the dedication of our new church. This will be an occasion for all of us to rejoice together.

Our joy shall not only be in the fact that we will then possess the added comfort and facilities provided by this new church, but rather that we have been able to build a worthy dwelling place for God amongst us. We, as members of Christ's Mystical Body, are joined to Him, and therefore this will truly be our house as well as God's, where God will live with us and we will dwell with Him. We must, therefore, always think of our new church as our home, where we of this parish can gather together and live with God as one great family.

The bells that will ring out on dedication day will announce our joy to all. Our joy will not only be in our material accomplishment, but in the spiritual progress of the parish in the past twenty-eight years of its existence as a parish. We shall rejoice in the many souls that have been sanctified under Mary's protective care in this parish. Note also in particular the great number of religious vocations. Rejoice also in the prayerful sacrifices that you have made so willingly in your loyal support of the parish in all its endeavors, both spiritual as well as material.

The Shrine of Our Lady of Bel-Mont, which was built in 1958 at great sacrifice on the part of many, has truly become "a beautiful mountain" of grace and blessing for all of us. Having given Mary this gift, we have received from her in return countless graces and spiritual blessings, as well as material gifts, among which we now count our 8-room school addition, our convent, our new rectory and new church - all in the space of less than ten years. Be ever faithful to Mary and you will never want. I hope that as your pastor I may be able to leave you just this one spiritual legacy - love for Mary. If you keep this love ever, you shall always be loved by Christ, Mary's Divine Son, and you shall always be blessed in the parish of Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

James E. Sherman

ST. MICHAEL, SEPTEMBER 29, 1965

THE BELLS

There are three bells in the tower which were cast in Holland for The I. T. Verdin Co. of Cincinnati. The largest of the bells weighs 3300 pounds and is dedicated to St. Michael. The second largest bell weighs 1683 pounds and is dedicated to St. Gabriel. The smallest bell weighs 1000 pounds and is dedicated to St. Raphael.

The following inscription appears on one side of all the bells:

OUR LADY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION CHURCH
DAYTON, OHIO IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA 1966

MOST REVEREND KARL JOSEPH ALTER, D. D., LL. D.
ARCHBISHOP OF CINCINNATI
REVEREND JAMES EDWARD SHERMAN, S. T. D., A. B.
PASTOR

The following inscriptions appear on the respective bells:

St. Michael:

I AM MICHAEL, THE VOICE OF GOD IN POWER,
I PRAISE THE TRUE GOD,
I CALL THE PEOPLE,
I GATHER THE CLERGY.

May Michael, the angel of peace, come from heaven into our homes, bringing fair peace with him and banishing wars to hell.

Christ, glory of the holy angels, Creator and Redeemer of mankind grant that we may ascend to heaven to live there with the blessed.

St. Gabriel:

I AM GABRIEL, THE VOICE OF GOD IN MAGNIFICENCE,
I LAMENT THE DEAD,
I SCATTER THE CLOUDS,
I ANNOUNCE THE HOLY DAYS.

May Gabriel, the angel of strength, come to banish our old enemies and to revisit the temples, dear to heaven, which Christ in triumph has placed in all parts of the world. May the Virgin, Queen of Peace and the Mother of Light, together with the holy company of Angels and the radiant court of heaven ever be our help and defense.

St. Raphael:

I AM RAPHAEL, THE VOICE OF GOD CASTING FIRE ON THE EARTH,
I HURRY THE LAGGARDS,
I SCATTER THE WINDS,
I PACIFY THE HOSTILE.

May Raphael, the Angel-physician of man's health, be with us to heal all that are sick and to guide all who are in doubt and uncertainty.

May the blessed God, whose glory resounds through all creation, Father, Son and likewise the Holy Spirit, grant us this, Amen.

THE BLESSING OF THE CORNERSTONE

The Most Reverend Paul Leibold, Bishop of Evansville, Indiana, former Auxiliary Bishop of Cincinnati, blessed and laid the cornerstone for the new church on May 1, 1966.

The cornerstone was carried into church in a solemn procession by Presidents of the Parish Societies.

The ceremony of cornerstone laying provided the first opportunity for the parishioners to view the interior of the unfinished church.

THE WINDOWS

All windows were done by the Conrad Pickel Studio, New Berlin, Wisconsin. We have carefully avoided the creation of mere picture windows. The glass used in the church proper where the windows are not made of faceted glass, is good mouth-blown antique glass, most of which has been imported from Europe. The color in the glass is in the substance itself. While the mass of colorless glass is still in the molten state, various metallic ingredients, such as gold, cobalt, chromium, etc. are added to produce an endless number of colors. This method of staining or dyeing glass is the same as that used in the Middle Ages. For this reason, it is called antique glass or pot-metal glass, from the pot in which it is made. A lump of bubbling mass is caught up at one end of a blow pipe, blown into a cylinder, cut, flattened, and cooled. Its very imperfections are often a part of its glory.

THE MAIN NARTHEX

In faceted glass (also called chunk glass), set in apoxy, one sees depicted in six windows from left to right the work of the six days of Creation. These are abstract presentations.

First God created all things, and the waters of the earth and the sky were not separate and the earth was waste and void. Then God separated the light from the darkness, and there was day and there was night. This is shown in the first window.

The second window shows the work of the second day of creation, when God separated the waters of the firmament from the waters of the land.

The third day of creation is shown next: God created the sun and the moon.

The fourth day of creation is shown next: God created the trees and the plants. (Note a tree, flowers, grass).

The fifth day of creation is shown in the next panel: God created the fishes and the animals. (Here are shown two white doves, a white rabbit, two fishes, two other animal heads, and a large serpent).

The sixth day of creation concludes God's work with the creation of Adam and Eve. Their faces are shown pointed to each other; only the hand and foot of each is shown to complete the presentation.

NORTH TRANSEPT

Reading right to left, we see in four panels the theme: God comes to man. The first panel depicts the nativity scene; below are the crowns of the Magi, and the doves which Mary offered when she presented the child, Jesus, in the temple.

The second panel depicts Christ's Public Life - the Sermon on the Mount, and shows the multitudes that went out to hear Him. The ventilator below shows the birds of the air drinking from the Fountain of Life, for Christ called Himself the Fountain of Living Water.

The third panel depicts Christ's Death on the Cross when we were redeemed. The ventilator shows the instruments of His Passion.

The fourth and last panel shows Christ's Glorious Resurrection. Below one sees the Phoenix - or mythical bird which is a symbol of the Resurrection, as in Egyptian mythology it was said to rise from its own funeral ashes.

SOUTH TRANSEPT

Reading from left to right we find portrayed the theme: Man returns to God. In the first panel on the left we find portrayed the coming of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost.

The second, third, and fourth panels all show man's return to God. A Pope (bishop), priest, deacon, all vested, hold their hands to the Holy Spirit for grace, as do figures portraying people in all states of life. Especially in the last panel one sees an old man toddling to the grave, asking for grace; a mother holding her child to the Holy Spirit imploring grace for the child through baptism; a teenager holding her hands up and imploring grace also.

The ventilators below, in order show from left to right: The foundation of the church; the infallibility of the church as exercised by the Pope, and all the bishops; the offering of worship through the Mass (the harp and grape vine); and finally, prayer and penance - the oil lamp, the book of prayer.

IN THE NAVE - NORTH SIDE

IN THE NAVE - SOUTH SIDE

Reading from right to left, in three panels, we see the Wedding Scene at Cana, where at Mary's request Christ changed water into wine. It is shown turning to wine as it is poured into the water jars. Beneath this panel the AVE and incense indicate we must offer our prayers to Mary.

The second panel shows Mary as the Sorrowful Mother, taking Christ into her arms as he was taken down from the Cross. Beneath it the pierced heart further portrays her as the Sorrowful Mother.

Finally, in the third panel Mary is shown as she is crowned Queen of the Universe. This is further indicated in the ventilator below which contains the sun, the moon, and all the heavenly bodies.

FLANKING THE SANCTUARY - NORTH SIDE

Mary is shown as she appeared to St. Bernadette at Lourdes. Directly beneath this is the chapel of the Immaculate Conception.

FLANKING THE SANCTUARY - SOUTH SIDE

Christ is shown as He appeared to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque at Paray-le-Monial in France. Beneath this is the chapel of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

THE WINDOWS IN THE TOT-ROOM - SOUTH SIDE

In the Tot-Room on the south side, Christ is shown in the center panel, and little ones are drawn to Him from both sides.

THE WINDOWS IN THE TOT-ROOM - NORTH SIDE

In the Tot-Room on the north side Guardian angel scenes are depicted: a little child on the way to school or church; a little child asleep; a little child fishing. One sees in the lower right hand corner of the last scene an object which has on it the letters, "Sou Kra." This is the bait can - the letters of the words are not all shown - but should read "Sour Kraut."

THE WINDOWS IN THE BAPTISTERY

Reading from left to right we see five panels. The first shows the creation of all things and the creation of water.

The next panel shows the great event in Judaic history, when the Israelites left Egypt. Notice the pyramids in the background. Moses rolled back the waters of the Red Sea, and the Israelites walked through the sea to reach the green grass of the Promised Land.

The center panel shows Christ, who commissioned the Apostles to go into the whole world, to teach all nations and to baptize them in the name of the Father and the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

The fourth panel shows the sanctification or blessing of the baptism water at the Easter Vigil Service, when the Paschal candle (Blessed to represent Christ) is immersed into the water in order to sanctify it, just as Christ sanctified the waters of the Jordan river when He descended into the water to receive the baptism of penance from John the Baptist.

Last is shown water pouring from the baptismal shell onto the head of one to be baptized. The Holy Spirit then comes upon him, and he turns to God by grace, just as the sun-flower (as shown) turns to the sun.

IN THE BLESSED SACRAMENT CHAPEL

Here the first window on the left shows how God fed the Israelites with manna in the desert. This prefigures the Eucharist. The presence of God in the Ark of the Covenant is shown by a tent. Also shown is the brazen serpent on the cross which Moses elevated for them to look upon for their safety.

The second window shows Christ's miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and the fishes.

The third shows Christ at the Last Supper where He instituted this Holy Sacrament.

The fourth shows a priest offering Mass, as Christ had commanded.

The last shows the Eucharist as our Viaticum, when a dying person is anointed (shown by oil stock) (O.I. for Oleum Infirmorum) and five crosses, representing the five anointings of the sick in the Sacrament of the Sick.

THE NEW PARISH RECTORY OCCUPIED BY THE PRIESTS IN APRIL, 1966

THE NEW CHURCH OF OUR LADY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION
DEDICATED OCTOBER 2, 1966

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS

MAIN FACADE

Here we see Mary, Mother of the Church. This title was officially conferred on Mary by the Second Vatican Council. She is represented as holding a church in her hands.

She stands between the Apostles, as she rightfully does as Queen of the Apostles. Looking from left to right the Apostles are: St. James the Lesser, first bishop of Jerusalem; St. Philip; St. Bartholomew; St. Matthew; St. Andrew; Sts. Peter and Paul (same panel). Continuing on the other side of Mary are: St. John; St. James, the Greater; St. Simon; St. Jude; St. Thomas; and St. Mathias who replaced Judas.

The statue of Mary was carved by Mr. Walter Driesbach, 3034 Mentor Avenue, Cincinnati 6, Ohio.

He also designed the figures of the twelve apostles.

FACADE OF NORTH TRANSEPT ENTRANCE

Here we find the representation of a large cross (Christ's) and many smaller crosses (Our crosses, united to Christ's).

This is to remind the true Christian that he must bear his cross along with Christ, and unite his sufferings to Christ's sufferings.

FACADE OF THE SOUTH TRANSEPT ENTRANCE

Here we see a large crown (Christ's) with many smaller crowns surrounding it. The smaller crowns represent the reward in heaven of those who follow Christ, for if we follow Him by bearing our cross, we shall also be crowned with Him in Glory.

THE MAIN ALTAR

The main altar is made of Verde Gressoney marble. It is carved in the form of an arch. An arch has always been viewed as a symbol of victory and of triumph. It, therefore, represents Christ's victory, for the altar represents Christ Himself. The arch is also used in bridges - and is, therefore appropriate here, for Christ is our bridge between man and God. One sees green leaves carved around the altar, to signify that we have been planted in Christ by baptism, and now are growing by His grace.

THE BAPTISMAL FONT

Here we see the font carved in the form of a tree - for as man sinned through the tree in Paradise, he regained Life through the tree of the cross. The leaves which surround the font are carved to signify that we begin to live spiritually by this new birth unto the life of grace.

The font stands in the center of a lowered area - to show that one must go down into the water to be buried in the water, as Christ descended into the river Jordan, and as He was lowered into the Tomb, from which He rose to a new life.

THE JEWELLED TRIUMPHANT CROSS

Suspended over the place of the tabernacle is a jeweled cross, without the body of Christ. This is to represent the glorification of Christ in Heaven, and our own glorification, if we are following Him by lives of grace.

CHARTER MEMBERS

MARIAN CREED

I believe that Mary the Mother of Jesus is truly the Mother of God. I also most firmly profess that Mary the Mother of God, was conceived without the stain of original sin, and that during her life she forever remained free of all stain of sin. I profess as of divine and Catholic Faith that Mary, the Mother of Jesus, forever retained her virginity, before as well as during, and also after the birth of Jesus. I believe that Mary's most holy body, without corruption, was taken by God into Heaven at the end of her life on earth, where she was crowned Queen of all Angels and Men, and that in Heaven she both intercedes with Almighty God for us, and assists in the dispensation of all His Graces. Amen
