Marianist Sisters at the University of Dayton

On October 8 we are celebrating with joyful thanksgiving the 50th anniversary of the arrival of the Marianist Sisters (Daughters of Mary Immaculate-FMIs) on campus. We give thanks for these women of faith and their contributions to the Marianist and Catholic mission of the University of Dayton. All are invited to participate in this celebration which begins with a prayer service at 4:00 p.m. in the Immaculate Conception Chapel followed by a reception in the Torch Lounge.

At the invitation of then UD president, Fr. Raymond Roesch, the Sisters arrived on campus in 1962 to supervise and coordinate the new women’s “dormitory” on campus, Marycrest Hall. This began 50 years of fruitful ministry at the University of Dayton which has expanded beyond this original residence life ministry. Since then Marianist Sisters have been involved in many significant ways at UD, especially in Campus Ministry where Sr. Laura Leming, Sr. Audrey Buttner, Sr. Eileen Cehry, Sr. Mary Louise Foley, and Sr. Nicole Trahan have played important roles including the development of some unique programs at the University (e.g. the founding director of the graduate assistant program in campus ministry and the Hand in Hand program to assist pregnant women students). During her tenure at the University, Sr. Estella Ibarra involved students in various ways in serving migrant children and Hispanic Catholics in the Dayton area. In recent years, Sr. Laura Leming and Sr. Leonne Jablonski have served as faculty members. Sr. Leanne has also been involved in sustainability, energy, and environment (SEE) initiative on campus.

In 1972 the Sisters moved into a house at 30 Sawmill Road where seven of them continue to live today. Although small in number, they have been an important and influential Marianist presence. May God richly bless them!!

To love each other in God, for God and because of God is to be sure of a lasting love.

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our Service Program of the Week: FACE AIDS and Flyers Against Malaria

FACE AIDS mission is to mobilize and inspire students to fight AIDS in Africa. By putting a face on AIDS, they will foster a generation of Americans who will continue to fight AIDS through policy, charity, and leadership.

Flyers Against Malaria strives to fundraise for and raise awareness of the malaria epidemic in Africa. They do this through numerous on-campus events. They work directly with and fundraise for the international organization, “Nothing But Nets.”
