Public Safety update

Vice President Bill Fischer and Chief Rodney Chatman attended the Council meeting to provide an update regarding developments in Public Safety during Chief Chatman's tenure thus far. The focus was on high-level initiatives, noting specific strategies for managing the student neighborhoods. The communications policy was also reviewed. Invitations for Public Safety personnel to attend unit meetings are welcomed and were encouraged. The Council was informed that ECAS and Student Development are working on two campus dialogues for the academic year, focusing on mental health in fall 2018 and campus safety in spring 2019.

Follow-up from September 7 Faculty meeting

An opportunity to discuss further the information presented and questions raised at the first University-wide faculty meeting for the 2018-19 academic year was provided. Questions regarding part-time faculty salaries and confusion regarding the transition to an all-funds budget were noted. Additional information and clarification were provided.

Other topics for discussion?

A discussion topic of leadership opportunities for women to advance was raised.

With no additional business, the meeting adjourned at 11:51am.
