November 2022

Welcome to the monthly newsletter from the UD Men for Gender Equity Initiative! This monthly newsletter promotes gender equity efforts at the University of Dayton through education, connection to resources, and providing actionable steps to advocate for gender equity. We invite you to engage with this newsletter by forwarding it to colleagues, participating in future events, and supporting gender equity in our community.

Making Active Change

In the spirit of creating active change at UD, the UD Men for Gender Equity Initiative challenges all of the recipients of this newsletter to forward this message to at least 3 colleagues to connect more people across campus to gender equity. Even better, encourage your colleagues to sign up to receive the newsletter!

Upcoming Engagement Opportunities

New! Gender Equity Consultation Service

Do you want to incorporate intersectional approaches to gender equity into your department's inclusive excellence plan? Do men in your office need help understanding the professional challenges that women face at UD?

The UD Men for Gender Equity's new Consultation Service can help you to build competencies and skills related to gender issues on campus. Sample topics might include:

- Recognizing and interrupting gender bias at work
- Responding to the Status of Women at UD Report Cards
- Developing action plans to enhance gender equity
- Advocating for development opportunities for women
- and more!

Advocate 101 Information Sessions

The UD Men for Gender Equity Initiative is looking for more men*-identifying faculty and staff to serve as Equity Advocates and promote gender equity at UD.

Equity Advocates are a group of men*-identified faculty, staff and administrators who participate in a two day, train-the-trainer style workshop, and then work to continue campus engagement and education for themselves and others, on issues of gender equity while also serving as proponents of gender equity in their departments and units.

Information Sessions will be:

- Thursday, December 15 from 1-2pm in the Women's Center (in-person)
- Tuesday, January 17 from 3:30-4:30pm over Zoom (virtual)
- Wednesday, February 15 from 12-1pm in the Women's center (in-person)

Register Here!

We recognize that not all people identify as "man" or "woman", so if you identify outside of the gender binary, please know that you are welcome to apply to the group that is best connected to your identity and/or lived experience.*

New and Improved UD Men for Gender Equity Isidore Site is Now Live!

The UD Men for Gender Equity Advocates have launched a new virtual education site on Isidore. Made for men*-identifying employees at all levels, this site provides self-paced modules, resources, and spaces for virtual engagement to increase their knowledge, skills, and strategies around issues of gender equity.

Employees can opt-in to the Isidore site using this link. Log in to Isidore using your UD username and password, and select “Add Me” when prompted to join the site.

For questions or technical issues, please email UDMenforGenderEquity@udayton.edu.

Share Your Experience

The Women's Advisory Council invites you to submit any comments, questions, or other concerns related to gender equity and campus climate. The form is anonymous and will not collect any identifying information. The Council will share these comments in aggregate with the men's Equity Advocates and Allies as we work collaboratively to affect positive change on campus.
