Catholic Education Summit
The University of Dayton
Dr. Mary C. McDonald
Be it known to all who enter here that Christ is the reason for this school. He is the unseen but ever present teacher in its classes. He is the model of its faculty and administration, and the inspiration of its students.
Catholic School History

- Historically dioceses operated numerous Catholic schools, mostly in urban area.
- As population shifted to suburbs, so did the Catholic parishes and schools.
- Catholic urban schools began to close in the 1980’s.
- Paradigm shifted in 1999 with the creation of the Jubilee Schools, and the opening of suburban schools.

• Reach out to build mutually beneficial relationships and partnerships with other Catholic schools, Universities, businesses, community leaders, and the media to increase awareness, participation, and support from outside the school community.
  – Create opportunities for personal visits, meetings, and community involvement.
  – Invite the participation of these constituencies in social events, sports events, committees or group projects, and fundraising events.
  – Increase student participation in community events and activities to make our presence visible to the community at large.
  – Include others as needed by your school community

• With a little help from our friends…
We Are The Arms of God In This World
Get out of the boat... then what?
Believe in Miracles
We Are The Arms of God In This World.
“We don’t need to teach these students because they are, or are not, Catholic. We teach them because we are Catholic. Education is our ministry, lifting up all children, educationally, spiritually, socially and economically is our mission. We are anointed, appointed, accountable”

— Dr. Mary C. McDonald
