UDSAP 2013

Are you interested in joining thirteen other UD students for an amazing summer of community and service? Our University of Dayton Summer Appalachia Program (UDSAP) will give you the opportunity to live and work within a culture in the United States that is different from the one most students come from. Imagine nine weeks living a very simple lifestyle in community and doing service with children in our Day Camp program, teens in our Teen Center program and visiting the elderly in the local nursing home, in Salyersville, Kentucky.

The UDSAP program reflects UD's Catholic and Marianist heritage of living in community, building a strong faith life and doing meaningful service. UDSAPers take time to visit the families of the teens and children in our programs. Our hope is that each UD student will build good and lasting relationships with the youth and families in Appalachia and continue these relationships by visiting during the next school year.

If you have an open mind and heart and want to learn from the people in Appalachia and from their Appalachian culture, come to one of the two informational meetings right after the Thanksgiving holidays: Tuesday, November 27 or Wednesday, November 28. Both of the meetings will take place 7:30pm at the Marianist Community at 301 Kiefaber St. If you cannot make one of the two informational meetings, you can pick up an UDSAP folder from the Center for Social Concern in Liberty Hall Room 107. Applications for UDSAP are due January 18.

Quote of the Week
