Hail Mary Queen of Holiness
Robert Holzmer, S.M.

Text: F. Faber; alt by P.W.
Paul Wessling Collection

1. Hail Mary Queen of holiness, God's masterpiece of grace, joy to be sin-free! His perfect home of rest-ful-ness, Sole boast of Adam's race. God's victo joy for those who see! We think of ry began in you, Conceived without a all your guileless art, With God most in-stain, Restoring women's honor or mate, And we keep singing in our due, Rev-ers-ing Satan's gain.
   heart, You are Im mac-u-late.
   pay Your love for souls un-seen.

Comment by Stan Zubek (180528) This version by Holzmer, Faber & Wessling entitled "Hail Mary Queen of Holiness" in the Eugene Frank anthology (p.48), 4th line text reads: "Hail, Mary we must sing today..."
The alternate version of this melody entitled "O Mother Queen of Holiness, the text is attributed to Paul Wessling alone (p. 121) 4th line reads: "Hail, Mary we sing today..."
1. Hail, Mary Queen of holiness, God's masterpiece of grace, His perfect joy to be sin-free! Conceived, conceived, conceived Immaculate, What joy for those who see! Home of restfulness, Sole boast of Adam's race. Conceived Immaculate, What joy for those who see! Home less, dying heed, Bring Christ to those in fear.

2. We think of all your guileless art, With Hail, Mary, We sing today In received without a stain, Restoring women's God most intimate, And we keep singing tribute to our Queen, That all the world may hon or due, Reversing Satan's gain. In our hearts, You are Immaculate. Soon repay Your love for souls unseen.

Comment by Stan Zubek (180528) In this version version in the Eugene Frank anthology (p.121) the melody is entitled "O Mother Queen of Holiness," the text is attributed to Paul Wessling alone 4th line reads: "Hail, Mary we sing today..." In the other version in the Eugene Frank anthology (p.48), by Holzmer, Faber & Wessling entitled "Hail Mary Queen of Holiness" the 4th line text reads: "Hail, Mary we must sing today..."

Paul Wessling Collection 121
O Mother, Queen of Holiness

Paul Wessling

\( \text{\textcopyright ?} \)

\( \text{Arr.: Michael F. Nartker, SM} \)

\( \text{\textcopyright ?} \)

\( \text{\textcopyright ?} \)

\( \text{\textcopyright ?} \)

\( \text{\textcopyright ?} \)
O Mother, Queen of Holiness

you, conceived without a stain, restoring women's art, with God most intimate, and we keep singing

day in tribute to our Queen, that all the world may honor due, reversing Satan's gain, in our hearts, you are immaculate.

soon repay your love for souls unseen.