Two University of Dayton students have been granted scholarship offers to the College of Law at Ohio State University for the coming school year, Bro. Albert H. Rose, SM, head of the UD political science department, announced today.

The scholarships went to Robert P. More, of Columbus, who will be graduated from UD in June, and to Charles Brandt of Dayton, a UD honor graduate of 1952 who recently returned from Army service which he entered shortly after graduation.

According to Robert J. Nordstrom, assistant dean of the OSU College of Law, "it is some kind of a record to have two of these scholarships awarded in the same year to graduates of the same school."

Both scholarships are renewable each year if high scholastic standing is maintained.

More, who has earned a cumulative point average of 3.95 for his years at UD, only .05 points less than perfect straight A's, received a similar scholarship offer from Notre Dame. Brandt is now in Philadelphia with an insurance firm where he is gaining legal experience.
