FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

Congressman Charles W. Whalen, Jr. today announced approval of $100,888 grant increase by the Housing and Urban Development Department for the East Dayton Urban Renewal project.

The funds will enable the city to make additional relocation payments authorized by the Housing Act of 1964.

The 749-acre project was approved for execution in April, 1958.

The total amount of grants made thus far now stands at $11,480,034.
