Quote Of the Week

The principal spirit of the Society of Mary is to present to the world the spectacle of a people of saints.
Blessed William Chaminade

Come to the Table

One day, the Center for Social Concern staff was eating lunch and discussing a contemporary social justice problem. By nature of our interests and professions, it's something we find ourselves doing quite often. On this particular occasion, we considered that it would be a good idea to invite others to a lunchtime conversation focused on a social justice topic. At that moment, Table of Plenty was born!

Table of Plenty is a monthly program open to all members of the campus community. We (the Center for Social Concern) prepare a homemade lunch and provide discussion questions on a particular topic. The goal is to have a diverse group of people—faculty, staff, and students conversing about a topic in order to enrich our understanding of others and a particular issue.

Topics we have had the pleasure of covering in the past include: abortion, access to education, Israel and Palestine, a Marianist approach to poverty, the death penalty, issues of marriage, and many more. The conversations have been both educational and insightful.

This semester, we kick off Table of Plenty on January 24. We will discuss women's ordination in the Catholic Church. Other topics this semester include the Occupy Movement, the climate for LGBTQ students on a Catholic campus, and the environment.

Each Table of Plenty meets in Liberty Hall, room 08, on the last Tuesday of the month from noon-1:15pm. If you are interested, please RSVP to Sue Terbay at sterbay1@udayton.edu by the Friday before the event.

Sunday Readings and Reflection

Reading I: Jonah 3:1-5, 10
Responsorial Psalm: 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9
Reading II: 1 Corinthians 7:29-31
Gospel: Mark 1:14-20

*Your ways, O LORD, make known to me;
teach me your paths,
Guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are God my savior.*
Psalm 25:4-5

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our

Service Program of the Week: UD Habitat for Humanity

Dayton Habitat for Humanity recognized the University of Dayton at a ceremony on Jan. 19 for its work building homes for those in need. The University received one of three President's Volunteer Service Awards. Representatives from the University accepted the Silver Award, which is given to groups completing between 500 and 999 service hours in a calendar year. Last year, 165 individuals from UD volunteered a total of 781 hours with Dayton Habitat. That total includes hours completed by: faculty, staff, and students through the student-run Habitat for Humanity club; other University volunteer groups that completed Habitat volunteer projects; and individual volunteer work by UD community members.
