PORCH

If there are two words we hear when describing UD, they are "porches" and "community." Both are a big part of campus life. But what is a PORCH Community? In campus ministry a PORCH Community is a small faith-sharing group: a safe place to gather with people, usually once a week to talk about life and how God might be working in it. It's a place for meaningful conversation and a community of support. PORCH stands for People Of Respect, Compassion and Hope. It's a place for you, wherever you might be on your faith journey.

If you are looking for a place to ask questions, share insights, laugh, pray, build great friendships and get to know God better, then a PORCH Community is for you. There are all kinds of groups: first year groups, men's groups, bible studies and more and they meet at times of the week that are convenient for you.

For those interested in gathering with folks from multiple PORCHes to learn more about the Marianist Charism and have some leadership training, join us in the Founders Hall Chapel on Tuesday February 7 at 7pm. We will meet to share our experiences in PORCH and discuss how to continue growing in our relationships with God, self, and others.

After spending some time in a PORCH Community you might find yourself using these two UD buzzwords in an entirely different way.
