Spring 5-24-1956

Rev. David C. Bayne, S.J. Will Speak at the University of Dayton

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/30
"The Background and Legal Aspects of Segregation" will be discussed at the University of Dayton library auditorium at 4 p.m. Sunday by the Rev. David C. Bayne, S.J., acting dean of the University of Detroit School of Law.

His appearance is being sponsored by the U.D. Current Affairs Organization. The discussion is open to the public.

Fr. Bayne, the only member of the Society of Jesus to hold a doctorate in law, is a member of the Judicial Council of Michigan, a post to which he was appointed by Governor G. Mennen Williams.
The Current Affairs Organization announces that Rev. Bayne, Dean of the University of Detroit School of Law, will speak in the Library Auditorium, Sunday, May 27 at 2:00 in the afternoon. The topic of his speech will be "The Background and Legal Aspects of Segregation." Everyone is welcomed and encouraged to attend.

After the Speech

In the evening at 7:00 PM in the Conference Room, Father Bayne will talk to anyone interested in law school.
Biographical Material - Reverend David C. Bayne, S.J.

Father Bayne was appointed Acting Dean of the University of Detroit School of Law on July 1, 1955. He is one of the youngest men to hold such a position in any law school in the United States.

Prior to his appointment as Acting Dean, Father Bayne was Regent of the Law School for one year.

He was born in Detroit on January 11, 1918. His mother, Mrs. David C. Bayne, Sr., resides at 17520 Stoepel Avenue in Detroit, Michigan.

He is the only member of the Society of Jesus to hold a doctorate in law.

Education

Attended Campion and Spring Hill Schools before graduating from the University of Detroit High School in 1935.

1939 - A.B., University of Detroit
1939 to 1941 - University of Detroit School of Law
1941 - Entered Society of Jesus
1946 - M.A., Loyola University of Chicago.
1947 - LL.B., Georgetown University School of Law
1947 - Admitted to the Washington D.C. and Federal Bars
1948 - LL.M., Georgetown University School of Law
1949 - S.J.D. (Doctorate of Law) Yale University Law School
1952 - Ordained to the priesthood
1953 - S.T.L. (Licentiate in Sacred Theology), West Baden College

During his early years, while attending the University of Detroit School of Law, Father Bayne worked for the law firm of Ward, Plunkett and Cooney, from 1939 to 1941.

While at the University of Detroit, Father Bayne was a member of Magi (social fraternity), Delta Theta Phi (law fraternity), Alpha Sigma Nu (National Jesuit honor fraternity), and Delta Kappa Pi (speech fraternity).

Father Bayne has written articles for the law reviews of the following universities: Fordham, Virginia, De Paul and Indiana, as well as for the periodicals, America, Social Order, Commonweal, the Michigan State Bar Journal, and the Detroit Lawyer.

Just recently he has been appointed to the Judicial Council of Michigan by Governor G. Mennen Williams. Father Bayne is also a member of the Detroit Bar Association's Committee on Legal Aid. He is the Chairman of the Conference of Jesuit Law Schools for this year.