We Can Do It

In high school, I was a swimmer, and I often swam the distance races- 200m or 500m. It wasn't that I was particularly good at distance swimming; I was just willing to do what no one else wanted. I found swimming to be a very solitary sport. Under the water you can't hear anyone, so it was just my mind and me. The first half of the race was often filled with negative thoughts: "You can't do this!" "It's so far!" However, when I made the turn from the first half of the race to the second—lap 4, or lap 10 depending on the race—my thoughts shifted: "Almost there." "Just a little longer." "You can do it!"

Today is the fourth Sunday of Lent, traditionally called Laetare Sunday. This comes from the Latin entrance chant of the day, "Laetare, Jerusalem" or "Rejoice, Jerusalem." Thursday of the Third week of Lent marks the halfway point in our Lenten fast, and this Sunday has historically been slightly more celebratory to commemorate. In years of more rigid liturgical rules, on this Sunday the organ was un-silenced, flowers were permitted in the sanctuary, and the priest wore rose-colored vestments. Churchgoers would permit themselves a bit of reprieve from their strict Lenten fast. Laetare Sunday is the church's way of shifting thoughts in the "race"; we have passed the halfway point, and now we look in anticipation towards the end—our Easter.

Quote Of the Week

Saint Joseph is a man of great spirit. He is great in faith, not because he speaks his own words, but above all because he listens to the words of the Living God.

Ven. Pope John Paul II

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our is part of the international Catholic peace movement that promotes social justice based on the works of Christ. We promote values of peace and justice through peace education and nonviolent activism.

Lenten Collection Will Benefit Marianist Programs Abroad

Another recipient of money collected for Marianist's abroad this Lent will be MIRACLE in Koronga, Malawi. MIRACLE is the "Marianist Institute of Rural Artisans for Christian Life Education." It is a job skills training program for unemployable orphans who have lost their parents to the AIDS pandemic sweeping sub-Saharan Africa. Integral to MIRACLE is religious and value education. Upon the completion of two years of training, these young men and women are placed in apprenticeships for six months and then assisted in securing jobs or in starting their own small businesses. With employable skills, small loans, and gifts of work tools, miracles happen. Despair is replaced by hope. Please look for ways around campus to donate to this cause during Lent.
