NEWS RELEASE

SUNDAY, NOV. 5: UD GREEN PARTY STUDENTS TO RALLY WITH RALPH

With a free pizza incentive to join in the fun, students from the University of Dayton's student Green Party are hoping to draw a crowd to the Kennedy Union Pub this weekend to watch the Ralph Nader "Super Rally" televised live from Washington, D.C.

Members of the political group will gather at 1 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 5, to rally while watching a satellite broadcast of the Nader event in Washington. UD Green Party president Maggie Vuturo said the group has arranged for the broadcast via private provider because the Washington rally will not be nationally televised.

Vuturo said regular meetings of the Green Party traditionally draw 20 people, but organizers believe they'll draw a bigger crowd to the UD rally in the Pub — located on the lower level of Kennedy Union — especially with the offer of free pizza.

For information, call Terry Duvall, UD Green Party secretary, at (937) 298-2682.
