Congressman Charles W. Whalen, Jr., today announced that the Leland Airborne Products Division of the American Machine and Foundry Corp. will receive a $53,444 Labor Department contract for an on-the-job Training project.

The contract will provide for the training of 149 unemployed or underemployed persons for six to 26 weeks of training at the Vandalia plant.

The occupations covered are lathe operator, drill press, mill, grinder, arc and acetylene welder, quality control inspector, stator wind, control box, inverter regulator assembly and armature wind.

Under the terms of on-the-job training contracts, employers pay wages to the trainees for all productive work.
