It'll be "Red Feather Day" on the University of Dayton campus Friday.

An all-out drive to collect funds for the Community Chest among the students will get under way with the first student assembly of the 1956-57 school year at 10 a.m. in the fieldhouse.

U.D.'s famed precision dancers, the "Flyerettes," will pass through the assembled student body to do the collecting for the Red Feather fund.

"Who'll be able to resist?" asked Dave King, senior from Rocky River who is president of the student council, sponsoring group for the collection. The Flyerettes will be under the direction of Joan Leff, Dayton senior.

Solicitation of funds among the U.D. faculty is under the direction of Mason C. Benner, director of development.
