A Prayer For Finals

God of Wisdom,

We thank you for the gift of this semester. Let your Spirit be with us now as we prepare for exams, guiding our studies, and giving us insight we need to perform to the best of our ability. Grant us the strength to handle the pressure of these final days of the semester, the confidence to feel secure in our knowledge, and the ability to keep an appropriate perspective through it all. Save us from taking our exams too seriously or too lightly, but grant that we may reflect the best of the work we’ve done and the best of the teaching we have received.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

A few thousand dollars were raised during our Lenten collections for Marianist Ministries overseas, $3884.77 to be exact. Thanks for your generosity. Because this project was so well received, we’ll make support of these and other significant Marianist programs for the poor a Lenten tradition on campus.

We welcomed a couple thousand new students to campus in the fall, uttered more than a few thousand prayers of support for one another, will collect thousands of pounds of donated clothing, food, and furniture as students leave campus, and soon — we’ll say goodbye to at least two thousand new UD graduates.

Congratulations to those graduating. We are grateful to have journeyed with you and proud to send you forth into the world as faithful witnesses to the Gospel and leaders prepared to transform the world! We’ll miss your presence. Trust that the grace of your spirit will remain with us for awhile.

May all of you know the faithfulness of the Good Shepherd in the challenges and opportunities of summer.

Crystal Sullivan, Director
Campus Ministry

Sunday Readings and Reflection

Reading I: Acts 4:8-12
Responsorial Psalm: 118:1, 8-9, 21-23, 26, 28, 29
Reading II: 1 John 3:1-2
Gospel: John 10:11-18

See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God.
John 3:1

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our

SOME HIGHLIGHTS...

• At the Easter Vigil Mass, Ashleigh Rowe and Tyler Kennedy were fully initiated into Christ and His Church. Amanda Torrez, already a baptized Catholic, completed her initiation into the Church.
• UD's Commitment 2 Community document, written by Campus Ministry and Student Development, was recognized as one of the 2012 best practices of the ASACCU (The Association for Student Affairs at Catholic Colleges and Universities) Mission Integration Project.
• UD was presented The President's Volunteer Service Award for service with Dayton Habitat for Humanity.
• Student Leadership Awards were presented by the Division of Student Development to four service clubs: New Abolitionist Movement, Social Justice Service, College Mentors for Kids and Active Minds.
• For the first time, Campus Ministry is led by a lay director, Crystal Sullivan.
• The Program for Christian Leadership including Callings is now part of Campus Ministry.
• Consciousness Rising is a successful new student conference focusing on human rights—this year's emphasis was on human trafficking.
• Just Foods is an exciting new program in which students learn about local foods, urban farming, & sustainability, & get to sample the food.
• Marijuana: Hash It Out is a new program to show the effects of marijuana that most people don't think about.
• Catholics are now saying "and with your spirit" on a regular basis thanks to the successful implementation of the New Roman Missal.
