Victor Emanuel
—will represent Alumni
Dear Alumnus:

Since the March issue of the Alumnus appeared at your favorite newsstand, replete with requests for pictures, the editors have not been forced to call out the reserves to handle the entries in the picture contest. True, there have been several pictures submitted by the faithful but, in the opinion of the judges, not enough.

For that reason we are extending the deadline of the contest to May 15. We feel certain that, in the interest of the Alumni in general and the Alumnus in particular, those who have already submitted pictures will not take this gesture amiss.

So you've still got a chance in this race for gold and glory. It's a five dollar bill and appropriate editorial comment for the winner. All we want is picture or pictures! New or old-nap, flash or otherwise. However, there must be some connection between the picture and a U. D. Alumnus. There are the rules. Now, how about us hearing from you?

We have recently gone to considerable expense and effort to bring our mailing list up to date. More than three hundred address corrections have been made in the past month and the project is still on! America certainly moves!

We will greatly appreciate a notification from you whenever your address changes. It will be a convenience to yourself as well. Too often your mail goes to your last known place of address, is accepted—and destroyed. We know you don't want that to happen to your copy of the Alumnus and that's why we solicit your cooperation. Look at the ad-

PROF. O'LEARY'S ARTICLE IN FEBRUARY ALUMNUS GAINS ATTENTION OF EXPERTS

"A Glance at Business," by Mr. E. B. O'Leary, Department of Economics and Business, a scientific article appearing in the February Alumnus, has been praised roundly as witness the following from the American Institute of Banking section of the American Bankers Association:

"I read 'A Glance at Business' with a great deal of interest, especially in view of the fact that recently some members of the Economics faculty of the Graduate School of Banking discussed this topic at a round table Regional Conference of the American Bankers Association. You reached precisely the same conclusions as the four members of our panel. I think your article is excellently done and I should like to congratulate you on it."—William A. Irwin, Associate Educational Director.

The article has also claimed the attention of professors of Economics and Business at two large Universities and reprints are being used for classroom discussion work at these institutions.

Mr. O'Leary holds Master and Doctorate Degrees from Ohio State, Chicago U. and Wisconsin and is a member of the Board of the Lincoln Federal Savings and Loan in Dayton. He promises another article for an early issue.

PROF. E. B. O'LEARY
Victor Emanuel Returning
To Campus For Short Visit

When dignitaries of the Clergy, City, State and Nation meet in a public Symposium in celebration of the University’s 90th Anniversary on Saturday afternoon, June 8, in the Stadium, Victor Emanuel ’15, famed international financier and donor of the University’s library which bears his father’s name, will be official representative of the Alumni.

The invitation, extended to him in the name of the Alumni Secretary, was promptly and graciously accepted. Mr. Emanuel plans coming to Dayton on Thursday, June 6, and remaining for the meeting of the Board of Lay Trustees, the Symposium, the Baccalaureate and Commencement. He has long been a member of the Board of Lay Trustees and is also a past member of the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association. This will be his first visit back to the campus in eleven years.

With characteristic modesty, Mr. Emanuel side-stepped our request for biographical information. However, the staff of the Alumni has a “Jergens Journal” complex so immediately launched an intensive sleuthing campaign through the pages of periodicals; the daily papers and largely through the publication “Who’s Who in America”, and came up with the following notes on our fellow Alumni:

Born in Dayton, Ohio, January 31, 1898, the son of Albert and Deborah (Rieser) Emanuel, Victor attended the University of Dayton (then St. Mary’s College) 1910-1915 and Cornell University 1915-1918. Received his LL.D. from University of Dayton and A.B. (war alumnus) from Cornell. On September 1, 1920, he married Dorothy Elizabeth Woodruff, Ithaca, N. Y. and there are two sons, Albert II and Barton. During the war he served as an officer in the United States Naval Flying Corps.

During the period 1927-1934 Mr. Emanuel lived part of the time in England in the historic and legendaryshrouded 800-year-old Rockingham Castle, where he was Master of the Woodland Pychley hounds and later Joint Master of the Pychley Hunt. In this connection Victor has raced over a period of years, both in this country and in England, and still maintains a modest racing stable. In 1928 he gave the Albert Emanuel library to the University of Dayton, and in 1929 was instrumental in procuring for the University several (Continued on page 7)

Hilltop Happenings

COMMENCEMENT—Due to the fact that graduation classes are becoming larger every year, those in charge of the Commencement program have found it necessary to limit the stage of the N. C. R. Auditorium to graduates and officials only. The faculty will be placed in the first rows in the orchestra; reserved seats will fill the remainder of the lower floor and general admission will be in the balcony. The hall accommodates less than three thousand, so any alumni coming to attend the services on Sunday afternoon, June 9, are urged to contact Brother Charles Belz at once to make reservations.

SAFETY ENGINEERING—The Mechanical Engineering Society made history April 16 when it attended the All-Ohio Safety congress held in Columbus, Ohio. This was the first time that any engineering school had ever sent a student delegation to a safety convention and is indicative of the progressive-ness of the University college... The annual Military Ball, sponsored by the Pershing Rifles, took place April 6 at the Miami hotel ballroom. Two orchestras, Bob Boyd’s ‘42, and Dick Skapik’s ‘41, provided the music and Tanny Stoecklein ‘42, was named sponsor of the Pershing Rifle drill team... Students in the department of music of the university presented a musical program for the general public Sunday afternoon, March 31. The glee club, mixed chorus and the band also appeared on the program, which was well received... The Thespians presented a three-act comedy drama, “Call Me Mike,” Tuesday evening, April 23. Betty Jane Israel ‘41 and Wilbur Smolka ‘42 played the leads... Dr. Worley H. Kendall, director of the fever therapy department of Miami Valley hospital, Dayton, addressed members of the Sigma Delta Pi pre-medical society of U. D. on his work in the development of fever therapy machines at the April meeting of the society... The French classes have been viewing French movies weekly as part of their supplementary exercises... Bro. Andrew Orschell, S.M., probably best remembered by most of the alumni as “Brother Andy,” the caretaker of the stadium, celebrated the 50th anniversary of his entrance into the Society of Mary March 25.

RADIO SERIES—U. D. students initiated a series of programs over radio station WING, Dayton, April 6. The half-hour programs are entirely student produced and may be heard every Saturday afternoon at 4:30... Father Francis J. Friedel, S.M., dean of the college of arts and sciences, has been re-elected Chairman of the group work division of the Dayton Council of Social Agencies. Father Friedel held this same office last year in the social organization which seeks to provide social adjustment for the 11,000 foreign-born persons living in Dayton... The Mechanical Engineering society accompanied the Dayton chapter of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers on an inspection trip of the National Supply Co. and the Steel Products Co., both of Springfield, O... Father Francis Langhert, S.M., assistant professor of philosophy, has built his own short-wave radio transmitter, W8RKQ. Bro. Louis Rose, S.M., associate professor of electrical engineering, has had his transmitter, W8SLX, in operation for some time now. Both U. D. faculty members have Class A licenses... Of the pre-medical graduates, Leo Donley and Torrence Makely will enter the medical school of Cincinnati University, St. Louis; Arthur Millonig and Donald Waag have been accepted by Western Reserve University and William Paul will enter the University of Cincinnati medical school next fall.

I.R.C. WORKS FOR GOOD WILL—The International Relations club presented the second of a series of Pan-American programs, open to the general public, April 15, in the Albert Emanuel library. These programs, designed to promote Pan-American good will, have attracted much attention about Dayton and several civic clubs have asked the I.R.C. for speakers and literature on Pan-American relations.

Dear Alumnus—(Cont’d from page 3) dress on the back cover right now. Is it correct or has the magazine been forwarded? We’ll gladly change our plate if necessary.

Since the last issue of the Alumnus, the following members have come forward with dues payments: Stanley E. Wawroski ($5.00) Chicago, Ill.; Hugh E. Wall, Jr., Washington, D.C.; William A. Fritz, Miamisburg, O.; Edward A. Schneider, South Charleston, W. Va.; Herman Reboulet, Melrose, Mass.; Huston Brown ($5.00), Hubert S. Kline, Richard H. Wharton, Benjamin M. Patterson, Merle P. Smith, Oliver H. Kuhl, Dayton, Ohio.
The Sporting Scene

GOLF—TEennis

The question has been solved! The Athletic Board of Control has approved intercollegiate golf and tennis provided the players pay their own expenses. This year the board made no appropriation for these two intercollegiate sports and it seemed as if U. D. was to be forgotten as a name in golf and tennis.

However, several students with interests in the two sports volunteered to pay expenses for the two teams. As a result U. D. will have intercollegiate representatives in golf and tennis. At the present time schedules are being hastily drawn up for the rapidly approaching season.

According to faculty manager of athletics, Bro. Aloysius Doyle, S.M., most of the former Buckeye conference schools make no appropriation for intercollegiate golf or tennis and U. D. is merely following their example. The money saved on golf and tennis will be applied to intra-mural sports.

Returning to the golf team will be veterans, George and John Humm and Don Bootes. The fourth member of the team has not yet been selected from a group of several likely candidates. The team should be very strong and stands a good chance of coping the Ohio State Intercollegiate Tournament.

Tennis prospects aren't too rosy but are, nevertheless, better than they have been for several years. Four veterans will make up the team. William Smith and Frank Zavakos will compose one of the doubles teams while two brothers, Paul and Claude Kroger, will form the other doubles team.

FOOTBALL

Climaxing spring practice Friday night, April 26, will be an intra-university game between the "St. Mary's Peers" and the freshmen gridders, who will have so much to do with the fate of next fall's Flyer team.

The game will be played under the University of Dayton stadium lights and fifty cents admission will be charged by the Dayton Boosters, Inc., sponsors of the contest.

The St. Mary's Peers will be composed of the Flyers who made up the squad that tied the Gaels out in San Francisco. The freshmen will, however, have one veteran, Leo Farber, on their team, and it is expected that Farber, who was changed by Baujan from guard to quarterback, will start the contest for the freshmen.

FENCING

A new sport has taken the university campus by storm. Seven short weeks ago the Department of Athletics approved a plan for incorporating fencing into its program. Bill Salsinger '43, state collegiate fencing champion, undertook the instruction of the 20 men and 15 coeds who applied for the training course in the sport new to the U. D. campus.

Almost unbelievable was the rapid progress of his students. By April 1, Salsinger was convinced that his pupils had learned enough to challenge Chaminade high school, whose team has been practicing since last October. The U. D. men's team turned back the high school team five matches to four on April 3. Encouraged by the victory, the fencers mixed foils with a team from the University of Cincinnati at Dayton. However, in this case the men bit off more than they could handle and lost 6 to 3. On April 10 Fairmont high school bowed in defeat before the U. D. men's team, 5 to 4. The girls, encouraged by the success of the men, held a non-decision meet with the coeds' team from Wittenberg College April 13.

Other contests scheduled for the Flyer fencing teams are a combined men's and women's contest with University of Cincinnati April 20 at Cincinnati; U. D. men's team against Antioch College April 27, and both the men's and women's teams against Wittenberg College May 4.

TRACK

The Flyer thinlies held their first meet of the year at Delaware, O., in an atmosphere of cold rain and snow. The final results were as dismal as the weather. The Flyers finished third behind Ohio Wesleyan and Albion of Michigan in a triangular meet. The Bishops annexed 114 1/2 points and 11 first places. Albion was next with 65 markers and four first places. Dayton garnered 31 1/2 points and no first places. Most of the Flyer points resulted from second places by Dryden in the shot put, by Obee in the discussion, and Padley in the 220-yard dash.

BASEBALL

Jupiter Pluvius has canceled eight of the ten scheduled Flyer baseball contests to date. Coach Harry Baujan's nine still hasn't received a real test, but a decisive 18 to 1 victory over Cedarville College in the Flyers' first intercollegiate game augurs of a strong squad. The other game, an experimental contest with the Class A

MIAMI VALLEY CHAPTER

The next meeting of the Miami Valley Chapter will be held Monday, May 20 at 8 p.m. in the Chaminade Hall clubroom. This announcement comes from Mr. Todd Makley, president of the group. In addition to the business section of the meeting which will be devoted to reports from the Constitution, Membership, Program and Entertainment Committees, there will be a humorous dissertation by Mr. M. Herbert Eikenberry '26 entitled, "A Yank at Oxford." There will be a variety musical program, indoor sports and refreshments to round out the evening. The officers wish to make the special announcement that Sidney, Ohio, inadvertently overlooked in the previous announce- ment, is cordially invited to membership.

Despite the inclement weather, more than sixty graduates and former students residing in Dayton and the Miami Valley were on hand at the organization meeting of the Miami Valley Chapter held in the Day students' club room in Chaminade Hall on April 8.

Torrence Makley '13 was elected president; Louis J. Tschudi '34, vice-president, and Elmer Will '37, secretary-treasurer. Judge William H. Wolff '31, president of the University of Dayton Alumni Association, conceived the idea of a Miami Valley Chapter, called the meeting and conducted the election.

DAYTON ALUMNAE

Calling all women graduates of the University!

A meeting for the purpose of organizing the Alumnae Chapter is being called for Sunday afternoon, May 19, at three o'clock, in the Women's Lounge on the second floor of Chaminade Hall. All former women students, regardless of whether or not they obtained degrees, are invited to this very important meeting.

Mary Graziano and Eileen Fiel, of the Class of '39, are the moving forces behind the idea of an Alumnae Chapter. Miss Fiel, by right of having been past president of the co-ed group, will preside at the meeting. Father Elbert will be present as will Sister Marie St. Eleanor, S.N.D., Dean of Women.

Father Elbert gave a stirring welcoming address in which he struck the keynote of a "bigger and better" Alumni body for the future. Harry Baujan then discussed spring football practice and showed moving pictures of 1939 football highlights.

After the business session the members bowed—noisily if not well—and took lessons from Messrs. Lou Tschudi and Jim Carter of the Athletic staff. Billiards, pool, table-tennis and paste-board polo was enjoyed by the less virile. Refreshments were on tap constantly.

CHICAGO

We had what we thought was a pretty fine meeting the night of April 3 when Father Elbert was here. Some of the old timers, who hadn't come out before, joined the Club and it looks like we really have something here.

After a good German meal at the Red Star Inn we had one short speech by Father Elbert and then we took a look at the Dayton-Ohio Wesleyan football movies. The gang enjoyed the informality and got a kick out of the pictures. We had a new Moot for the party and he's in the picture.

Those present were Theo. A. Sharpenter, J. H. Holscher, Bill O'Connor, Geo. C. Hochwalt, B. J. Steggerd, D. Herbert Abel, Carl Geppert, A. J. Wallace, Jr., Oscar C. Miller, Bud Grimes (Ned was ill), Edward A. Blumenthal, O. J. Hollenbach, Matt C. Flanagan, Bernard A. Sieben, Albert J. Kemper, Edward O. Willoughby, John A. Reiling, T. J. Thomas, Francis N. Sieben, John J. Ladner, President; Herb Hart, Vice-President; Father Elbert and myself. From 1892 to 1939!

We feel that we are rolling right along and already are making some plans for next Fall. We hope to be able to get a bus and come down to Homecoming! Good luck.

Dan O'Keefe, Secretary-Treasurer

CINCINNATI

Our Yesterdays

35 Years Ago—April, 1905

In the Exponent magazine, Joseph A. Pilon '05 asks, "Shall Latin Continue to be Taught in Our Colleges?" (Ed. Note: Caesar, Virgil, Cicero et al. were on the pan even in those days). W. A. Hutchins '07 produced an aesthetic essay, "The First Easter." In a book review, Aloys Voelker '06 heaps lavish praise on Lew Wallace's "Ben Hur", the Anthony Adverse of its day.

Francis C. Canny '09, who later became United States District Attorney, was the author of a short story entitled, "A Thrilling Experience." Francis was lucid if not verbose even in those days for in this story of a scant 500 words he packed a succession of thrills involving international intrigue, the U. S. secret service, treacherous quicksand, smugglers and a happy-ever-after ending; and to think it took Margaret Mitchell more than twelve hundred close packed pages to tell that Scarlet O'Hara was a wilful, headstrong Southern girl with green eyes.

An editorial was titled, "Advertising is Here to Stay." The basketball team beat Hamilton 28 to 21; Cedarville 27 to 20, and Tipp City 41 to 24.

25 Years Ago—April, 1915

The Exponent carried a well written treatise by C. J. Nimod titled, "Militarism and Navyism." This article, which assailed Allied propaganda and appealed for sanity and American neutrality in the case of the people vs. World War I, could be used verbatim today; but probably no one would listen. They didn't then, either!

Writers included Raphael Sourd '16, Norman Hochwalt '17, and Carl J. Ryan '16. (Rev. Raphael Sourd is now with the Home Missionaries of America; Dr. Norman Hochwalt is one of Dayton's leading physicians; Rev. Carl J. Ryan is Diocesan Superintendent of Schools.)

The basketball team was composed of Captain Sherry, Al and Otto Krusling, R. Broadstone, N. Hochwalt, H. Haile, V. Barlow and M. Rabbitt. They defeated Antioch 26 to 18; Xenia Bradys 37 to 18; Muskingum 46 to 25; Heidelberg 30 to 18. Defeats came from Ohio State 30 to 19; Denison 34 to 16; Western Reserve 28 to 23; Xenia Bradys 24 to 22.

The St. Mary's Cadets defeated the Miamisburg Rexalls 166 to 17. Norb Sacksteder led his team's attack with 30 field goals. Varley had 16 field goals; Sherry 18; Hugo Sacksteder 15 and Baker 4. (Ed. Note: Our Mr. Carter could use a few of those boys.)

10 Years Ago—April, 1930

Richard Frankensteen and Robert McBride were co-authors of the annual Alumni play, "Clouds Roll By." The eleventh annual Military Ball, held at the East Oakwood Club, was an outstanding success. Art Routzong was official scorer for the Dayton Aviators baseball team in the Central League.

The Senior Farewell was set for Greenwich Village Club. Arrangements included two orchestras and elaborate favors. The admission charge was $5.00 per couple. The ticket committee included Paul Lutz, Lee Wagner, Francis Marshall, Norman Miller and James Gale.

The baseball team had won six and lost but one. The victims were Antioch 13 to 5; Cedarville 5 to 2; Cincinnati 5 to 0; Cincinnati 7 to 2; Ohio Wesleyan 4 to 3; Antioch 10 to 3. Ohio Wesleyan held the lone victory over the Flyers, 4 to 3. Joe Anderson was the club's leading hitter with an average of .348.

Letters from the Alumni

Dear Jim:

A very interesting thing happened the other night. Thought you'd be interested. A group of us are "counting noses" for Uncle Sam in the 1940 census were working overtime the night of the Miami Valley Chapter meeting and I had just passed the remark that I hoped to be able to leave soon as I wanted to go to the Alumni meeting.

Sitting next to me was Pat Shields. He said, "Why Jack, I didn't know you were a U. D. man. You know I am an old grad myself!" Across the table, Louis Frey said, "So am I—Prep Class of '26." Next to him was Carl Fries and he said, "So am I—Class of 1901."

And in addition to the above named—right in that same room was a group of U. D. grads including William Hickey '16; James M. Griffin '10; Russell Graves '04, and yours truly. What's more, the area manager is Norb Sacksteder '14. We practically had our own Alumni meeting.

Dear Mr. Brown:

Arent your request for pix is.

The enclosed picture is of the 18-month old daughter of a bona fide ALUMNA and an equally b. f. ALUMNUS, being possibly the first on record under such a rare parentage combination (although certainly not the first daughter of these parents.)

Subject is being groomed for freshman class 1956, majoring in Home Economics in which field the candid camera caught her first delightful, albeit inexpert, experimentation.

The gal reacts to the nickname "Molly."

amateur Frigidaire club, ended with the Hilltoppers on the wrong side of a 13 to 1 score.

The first intercollegiate game at Cedarville, April 10, indicates that U. D. is becoming a power also in the national sport. The pitching, which Harry Baujan was worried about at the beginning of the year, was very good and should continue to win games for the Flyers. Jean Stapenhurst, Glen Smolka and Gus Kinzler twirled for U. D. and allowed but four scattered bingles.
In accordance with the Constitution of the Alumni Association, the two slates of nominees to be considered for the annual Alumni elections are on once more printed in the Alumnus. This will be the last time they are so carried. Mail ballots, which will go to the membership in May, will carry the nominees in alphabetical order. The results will be announced at the annual Alumni meeting, tentatively set for Saturday, June 8.

The two slates follow:

Class Re-union Activity

Merle P. Smith '25, Herb Hirsch '30, James A. Connelly '35 and Elmer Will '37, secretaries of their respective classes, have the ball rolling toward enthusiastic class reunions for Commencement week. However, we haven't heard any activity from those earlier "five year classes" viz. '90, '95, '00, '05, '10, '15 and '20. How about it, you fellows? Going to let the "youngsters" show you up? There's still time. What do you say we get goin' for the biggest reunion in Dayton's history?

Following are the names and addresses of the secretaries of the reunion classes:

1890—Hon. Harry Ferneding, 125 Wisteria Drive, Dayton.

1895—Andrew A. Hellmuth, 212 M & M Bldg., Springfield, Ohio.

1899—(C. C. Adams, deceased.)

1905—Charles Kenning, 312 Dartmouth Ave., Rochester, N. Y.

1915—Orville Wunderlich, 50 W. Maplewood Ave., Dayton.

1920—Dr. Willbur Yackley, 661 Far Hills Ave., Dayton.

1925—Merle P. Smith, 1245 Cumberland Ave., Dayton.

1935—James A. Connelly, University of Dayton, Dayton.

1937—Elmer Will, Miami Hotel, Dayton.
Class Notes

1899 — Chester Shroyer, 612 Bowen Street, Dayton, Ohio, died on Tuesday, April 23. Chester was a regular visitor to the campus; was annually among the first to come forward with Association dues; was an ardent football fan. He had held a season ticket on the same seat in the Stadium since 1925. Chester was truly a loyal Alumnus. We shall miss him mightily.

1905 — Charles Kenning’s address was erroneously listed in the class secretaries in the March issue. Mr. Kenning’s correct address is 312 Dartmouth Avenue, Rochester, N. Y.

1907 — WILLIAM E. HILGERINK IS MISSING from our files! We feel it deeply that we are no longer in contact with this great athlete and popular campus figure of another day. Surely someone knows his whereabouts and will notify us. He was last heard from in Greensboro, N. C.

1913 — Rev. Alphonse Schumacher, former St. Mary’s Cadet, is pastor of St. Brigid’s Church in Xenia, Ohio.

1916 — Rev. Raphael Sourd is associated with Father Bishop in the newly organized Home Missioners of America. J. D. Leonard, Jr., manager of the Hotel Gotham in St. Petersburg, Fla., was host to Brother William Dapper, Treasurer of the University, on the occasion of a recent business trip. Mr. Leonard’s class was erroneously listed as 1911 in a recent issue of the Alumnus. Rev. John L. Oberlander was a campus visitor recently. He resides at 924 Troy Street in Dayton.

1917 — James A. Lyons is associated with the Carroll Press, Inc., in Columbus, Ohio. Virgil Murphy is now night manager of the Neil House in Columbus, Ohio. In his new capacity, he is associated with another Alumnus, Tom Sabrey, manager.

1924 — Charles Gitzinger has another son — this one Dick. The first born was Tom and now Harry is eagerly awaited. Cyril C. (Bud) Stein was host to Brother Charles Belz and Father Renner recently at his new home, 2630 Bryden Road, Columbus, Ohio. Cyril is with the Federal Glass Company.

1925 — R. E. Alexander was recently married to Miss Virginia Koores. The couple resides at 2312 Emerson Ave., Dayton. Ed is manager of Advertising and Sales Promotion at the Standard Register Company.

1926 — Wenceslas Quintana is the father of an infant son. The family resides at No. 72 Ramon Guzman, Mexico D. F., Mexico.

1927 — Andres Quintana resides at Calle de Venecia, Mexico D. F., Mexico, William H. Carmody, of the Carmody Research Laboratory, Springfield, Ohio, was author of an article appearing in the April issue of “Industrial and Engineering Chemistry” magazine entitled, “Coal By-products. Yellowing of Indene-Coumarone Resins.” Herman J. Reboulet was a campus visitor on April 18.
