You're invited to the second-ever What's Brewing faculty/staff open house at Roesch Library!

3 to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 9, 2017

- Taste unique beers by local breweries, made with flowers and herbs named for the Virgin Mary.
- See the Mary's Gardens exhibit on three floors of Roesch Library; it features a living garden; new paintings depicting Mary and the flowers named in her honor; and display cases of items from the Marian Library's John S. Stokes and Mary's Gardens collection.
- Provide feedback on initial ideas for Roesch Refresh, the library renovation that begins in December 2017.
- Beer selections by Tom Morgan, associate professor of English.

On tap: Hard cider and non-alcoholic beverages also will be provided, along with bar food snacks!

Eudora Brewing Co.: Mother Fuggle (Brown Ale) with Lavender (Mary's Drying Plant)

Fifth Street Brewpub: Gose with Sage (Mary's Shawl)

FigLeaf Brewing Co.: Saison with Lemon Thyme (Sweet Mary/Virgin's Humility)

Warped Wing: Ermal's with Marigold (Mary's Gold)

Yellow Springs Brewery: Captain Stardust (Saison) with Violets (Our Lady's Modesty)

All who RSVP and attend What's Brewing will be entered in a drawing to win a set of Mary's Gardens planters. This event is exclusive to University of Dayton faculty, staff and graduate assistants who are 21 and older. UD ID required upon entry.
