Centennial Commencement

1850 - 1950

JUNE THE THIRD
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY
DAYTON, OHIO

ON March 19, 1850, the first Mass was celebrated on what is now the campus of the University of Dayton. This act marked the beginnings of the first permanent educational establishment of the Society of Mary in America.

Today—one hundred years later—the University has an enrollment of over 3200 students and is one of the outstanding Catholic institutions of higher learning in Ohio. She is presently engaged in graduating her largest senior class.

Standing on this threshold of the second century of her existence, the University rededicates herself and hers to the ideals of Reverend William Joseph Chaminade, founder of the Society of Mary, and invokes anew the blessings of God.

With legitimate pride in the loyalty and accomplishments of her faculties, alumni, and friends during the past one hundred years, and with confidence in her younger children on the commencement stage today, the University of Dayton moves forward to the end of another century for God and country.

THE UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON ANTHEM

On mountain high and hillside, o'er meadow and through dell,
In busy mart and hamlet, where hearts their story tell,
A clarion voice is ringing, it rises, now it falls,
Arouse, ye sons of Dayton, your Alma Mater calls.

U.D., we hear you calling, Fidelity's the test,
Your stalwart sons all answer from North, South, East and West,
With measured tread advancing, our emblem full in view,
We sound your praise and pledge our loyalty to the Red and Blue.

THE UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON is grateful to
