STATEMENT BY CONGRESSMAN CHARLES W. WHALEN, JR. ON THE RELEASE OF FUNDS FOR MILITARY CONSTRUCTION AT WRIGHT-PATTERSON AFB.

#67-09
January 20, 1967

I am pleased to announce that the Defense Department today has released $4 million for military construction projects at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, according to information furnished my office.

The funds had been deferred from Fiscal Year 1966.

The projects to be built at the base are:

1. The addition of a composite medical facility to the base hospital at Patterson Field - $2.5 million.
2. An airman's barracks for the Wood City area - $400,000.
3. Visiting officers quarters at Patterson Field - $750,000.
4. A chapel in the Page Manor Area - $378,000.
5. Alteration of Bldg. 1189 in Wood City to serve as a library - $55,000.

I am particularly gratified to see that the housing needs at the Field, which I pointed out last year, now are being met by this appropriation.
