It is not exactly typical. It is not about giving something up for a period of 40 days. The #UDLentenChallenge is about doing something that can continue to be a positive part of your life long after Lent has passed. For example, last year, my goal was to pray each time that I ran during training for my first half marathon. Today, running is my favorite time to pray.

The challenge is to somehow offer up time and effort each day to simply "be" present with God. So, set a creative goal for yourself and make a commitment to grow closer in your relationship with God during this Lenten season!

Beginning Sunday, March 2, you can pick up a purple Lenten Challenge bracelet available in Immaculate Conception Chapel or any of the Residence Hall Chapels. Wear your bracelet throughout Lent as a sign of your commitment to your goal. Of course, it is important to be inspired along the way so follow us on social media, including our Twitter, Facebook and Tumblr blog pages for daily updates and reflections.

What will your Lenten Challenge be for this year? Share your goals and become involved in helping with the UD Lenten Challenge if you would like by emailing Katie Mathews at mathewsk1@udayton.edu

Ours is indeed a grand work, a magnificent work, and if it is universal in scope, it is because we are missionaries of Mary, who says to us, 'Do whatever He tells you.'

Blessed William Joseph Chaminade
