(Story on page 5)
Dear Alumnus:

After our customary summer publishing lapse of three months, the Alumnus once more goes out to over 3000 U.D. grads the length and breadth of the world. The story it has to tell in this, and no one knows how many subsequent issues, is a story of a University, its students, faculty, resources and graduates in a world at war.

Every phase of the University’s daily life has been affected. Every conceivable step that can be taken to forward the war effort has been made. One move of this kind was the establishment of the bonds and stamps system of alumni association dues solicitation. The idea has worked admirably thanks to the unflagging and wholehearted cooperation of our graduates, who are loyal to both country and university.

At present the 1942 membership campaign stands at approximately $1600. With two months yet to run, the campaign is expected to surpass last year’s record total of $2053.50. Have you contributed your share? Any contribution from you, no matter how large or small, will be most appreciated.

Here are some interesting side-lights on the drive thus far:

Largest contribution was $34 from Victor Emanuel ’15, New York. Average contribution is $5.13. (Last year’s average was $4.32.) There have been two contributions of $25; one $23.75; one $22.75; five $18.75; two $12.50; eleven $10.00; one $9.00; two $8.00; three $6.00; fifty-seven $5.00. The remaining contributions were regular four dollar annual memberships.

We fully realize the financial demands being made upon you. Your University is experiencing the same demands. It is further contributing of every facility at its disposal. It needs your help in its work. Thank you!

On page four of this issue you will find the names of 55 graduates who have recently entered the service or who have but recently come to our attention. This brings our grand total of service men to 481. Do you know of someone we may have overlooked? If so, kindly notify the alumni office.

FRANK BAUJAN '39

The administration late last summer announced the appointment of Francis E. Baujan, '39, younger brother of varsity coach Harry Baujan, as freshman football coach and physical education instructor. He succeeds Pat Malone, who resigned at the close of the last term.

Baujan attended U. D. from 1935 to 1939 and during his four years as a student distinguished himself by his active participation in sports. He played four years of football and baseball and was active in intra-mural basketball and boxing.

After leaving U. D. in 1939 Baujan coached freshman football at Western Illinois State Teachers' College.

FROSH ENROLL

AN UNEXPECTEDLY LARGE group of freshmen filled St. Mary's hall corridors as one of the largest classes in the history of the university registered this September. Jimmy Finke signs his card while coeds Frances Thornton (nearest to camera), Ruth Brinkman, Emma Jean Hoke, Vivian Losh and Mary Ann Finke look on.

A class of 312, one of the largest U. D. has ever had, registered on August 31. Residence halls at the university are filled to capacity. The bumper crop surprised faculty and officials, who expected a low wartime enrollment.

HOME COMING SET FOR OCTOBER 31

Dayton's 1942 Homecoming, necessarily curtailed because of war-time measures, takes place Saturday, October 31. The Dayton-Marshall football game highlights the program, the game getting under way at 6 p.m.

There will be no Friday night bonfire. (We don't waste vital materials these days!) Instead, the student Spirit Committee, customarily in charge of the affair, will stage a pep rally in the gym at 8:30 o'clock, Friday night, October 30.

Because the University now harbors the largest number of boarding students in its history the dining hall facilities are taxed to the limit and the annual homecoming luncheon has had to be dispensed with. However, the Class of 1922, holding its twentieth anniversary, will be accommodated in the visitors' dining room at dinner, starting at 6 p.m.

The game between Marshall and Dayton looms as a thriller—possibly the most spine tingling engagement of the two teams in their long rivalry. Between halves, Homecoming ceremonies will be held, featuring the 1942 Homecoming Queen. She will be elected during the coming week at a special balloting of all student groups on the campus.

The game will end at about 10:30 p.m., leaving ample time for private gatherings at the downtown hotels. Various alumni groups have already completed arrangements for their own get-togethers after the game.

There will be no dance after the game because of the lateness of the hour. Instead, the Homecoming dance, sponsored by the Spirit Committee, will be held Saturday afternoon at the Miami hotel, beginning at 4 and continuing until 7 p.m. Michael Hauer's orchestra will play. The dance will be supper club style. Tickets are $1.50 and may be purchased at the door.

The University will have "Open House" Saturday afternoon for returning grads. Here will be the ideal opportunity to visit the old haunts and renew friendships.

Just how much travel restrictions and the long hours of war work will affect Homecoming registration cannot be foretold. However, no stone is being left unturned to make the best of existing conditions with the end in view of showing the returning grads that they are most welcome. This move is in marked contrast to the large number of universities that have been forced to cancel their Homecoming programs entirely.

REUNION FOR '22

Ed Sander is chairman and Frank Elardo, Robert M. Payne and Anthony Horvath are assistants of the twentieth anniversary party for the class of 1922 to be held co-incidental with Homecoming.

The group will dine in the visitors' dining hall at 6 p.m., Saturday and will sit together at the game. Following the game they will stage their reunion party at the Brooks club in down-town Dayton.

FLYERS MAKE GREAT STAND AGAINST VOLS

The overwhelming size and power of the mighty Tennessee Volunteers proved too much for the valiant Flyers as Dayton was handed its first loss of the season by a score of 34 to 6. The Flyers were out-pointed, but far from out-fought. They exhibited an air attack which had the Vols on their heels more than once, as Bill Knisley passed the Flyers down the field to 13 first downs. The Vols, who relied largely on their powerful running attack, were able to chalk up only 11 first downs, but these came in more opportune spots than those of the Red and Blue. Knisley himself tossed 11 passes to completion out of 15 attempts. The over-all pass average was 16 completions out of 22 thrown.

The Flyers' score came early in the fourth quarter after Castignola and Pinciotti had thrown a series of short passes which carried Dayton to the Vols' 22. On the second down, Pinciotti faded back and passed to Fenton on the five, who side-stepped a tackler and dove into the end zone.

The Vols tallied twice within four minutes at the start of the first period, when they converted a quick kick and a fumble into 13 points. On the second down after the kick-off, Cifers quick-kicked to the Dayton 6, Knisley punted out, but on the next play Gaffney tore right tackle on a reverse and raced 40 yards for a touchdown.

(See FLYERS, Page 6)

FRANCES LONG, INTERNEE AT MANILA in a Japanese camp for six months, is shown here as she visited with four U.D. Hawaiian students who were at Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7. Miss Long, daughter of the secretary to the consular body at Shanghai, was pictured in a six-page spread in LIFE, and at the time of her visit to Dayton was giving a series of talks over WLW, Cincinnati. More recently she appeared on the "We, The People" program.

The U.D. students, who arrived in San Francisco Aug. 15 via convoy, are, left to right: Arthur Wong, Wallace Chang, Alfred Soon, and Edmund Lum.

FIVE "BIG ONES" FOR THE FLYERS

With half of the season's games already in the record books, the Flyers can look back on the creditable record of four wins and one loss, having defeated Findlay, Western Michigan, Heidelberg and Miami and lost to Tennessee. But to look back is folly, so the Hilltoppers are ignoring the past record and have their eyes fixed ahead on the five "must win" games coming up.

XAVIER—Played on the home grounds this year. This game promises to be a real grudge match, with the Flyers out to avenge that 27-0 defeat administered by the Musketeers in the snow last season.

MARSHALL—HOMECOMING and the game of the year for everyone. Eight years ago when the Dayton-Marshall series began the Thundering Herd was just another game on the schedule. But with each succeeding year the rivalry grew stronger until last year 1,500 fans journeyed from Huntington to see the Flyers win the "epic of the mud" by a close 7-0 score. This year's game will climax the series, as the wins now stand at four apiece and the Herd is reported to be tougher than ever.

CHATTANOOGA—A newcomer to the Dayton schedule but certainly not a breather. The Flyers will have to be very careful with this team which earlier in the season put up a stiff battle against Georgia Tech.

CINCINNATI—Those who saw the Bearcats play last year will remember that the Flyers, as underdogs, had to use a field-goal to eke out a 3-0 victory. The Bearcats are extremely eager to meet the Flyers in Cincinnati this year.

OHIO UNIVERSITY—U.D. is pointing for its first win over the Bobcats since 1938. Ohio U. gave the Flyers a 21-7 defeat in last year's "Turkey Tilt."
THE ACCOMPANYING PICTURE OF THE "SENIOR DIVISION" OF 1892, given to the alumni office by Michael J. Gibbons, '05, and first printed in the May, 1942 edition, has now been almost totally identified. Albert J. Kemper, '94, Chicago, and Thomas Coughlin, '93, Cleveland, were the grads who helped us with the identification.

Four of the above grads remain unknown. Anyone knowing who they are, please drop the alumni secretary a note. Thanks.

score. The kick was good, Tennessee then kicked-off to Knisley in the end zone, who returned it to the 25, but fumbled on the tackle, Tennessee recovered and within the next three plays scored again on the same reverse play. On the next kick-off, Knisley took the ball on the Dayton 12 and returned it 49 yards to the Vols' 40. On the next play, a pass from Knisley to Fenton was poor for 20 yards and a first down on the Tennessee 20 yard line. The threat was short-lived, however, as Pinciotti, on the next play, faded back to pass and was trapped 15 yards behind scrimmage. The quarter ended after an exchange of kicks and the score was 13-0.

The Flyers opened the second quarter with a sustained drive which started on their own 19 and ended inches short of a first down on the Tennessee 29. Tennessee took over at this spot and Hillman, on a reverse, broke through the line and raced 66 yards to the Flyer four, Dayton held for two plays, but on the third down Gold plunged over for the score. The kick was good and the score was 20-0.

The Vols tallied again early in the third period after a 50 yard pass from Cifers to Lloyd placed the ball on the Dayton two. Fuson hit the center of the line for the fourth touchdown. The goal was good and the score was 27-0. After an exchange of kicks the Flyers, spurred by a 24 yard run by Knisley, drove down the field to the Vols' 17, but an intercepted pass by Cifers on his 5 yard line ended this threat. The Flyers received their first break when Fuson fumbled a bad pass and Strugarek recovered on the Tennessee 19. The Tennessee line stiffened and the Red and Blue warriors were forced to attempt a field goal from a bad angle. The kick was wide and when the quarter ended the score was still 27-0.

Castignola opened the fourth period by returning Slater's punt from the Dayton 11 to the Dayton 31. He and Pinciotti then took turns passing the Flyers down the field to the Tennessee 23. Pinciotti then stepped back and heaved the touchdown pass to Fenton and the score was 27-6. The Vols turned on the power after the kick-off and drove down to the Flyer 20, where Long's plunge through the center was good for another score. The kick was good and the score stood at 34-6. An exchange of punts followed and as the game ended the Flyers were in possession of the ball in mid-field.
