Abstract	The Marian Travel and Tourism pamphlet collection contains printed ephemera, primarily pamphlets, but also brochures, maps, and guides to Marian destinations in the United States and internationally. The collection includes travel and visitor information for Marian shrines, sanctuaries, churches, and cathedrals, as well as visitor information for towns or regions with travel destinations related to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Some materials in the collection were created for the purpose of Marian pilgrimages, primarily to the Holy Land or Europe.

Preferred Citation

Marian Travel and Tourism pamphlet collection, 1926-2012. Marian Library, University of Dayton Libraries, Dayton, Ohio.

History of the Marian Library

The Marian Library was established in 1943 by Marianists at the University of Dayton in Dayton, Ohio. The library contains a comprehensive collection of materials related to the Blessed Virgin Mary (including books, visual resources, primary source materials, and multimedia) and aims to promote study, research, and devotion. The library maintains a website, The Mary Page, which may be found at themarypage.org.

Scope and Contents

The Marian Travel and Tourism pamphlet collection contains printed ephemera, primarily pamphlets, but also brochures, maps, and guides to Marian destinations in the United States and internationally. The collection includes travel and visitor information for Marian shrines, sanctuaries, churches, and cathedrals, as well as visitor information for towns or regions with travel destinations related to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Some materials in the collection were created for the purpose of Marian pilgrimages, primarily to the Holy Land or Europe. This collection of printed materials documents Marian travel destinations in the United States and internationally.

Arrangement

The materials are arranged in alphabetical order by country, and there is a section for Multiple Destination materials at the end of the collection.
