Featured Marianist Mission

One of the recipients of our Lenten collection for Marianist's abroad will be Our Lady of Nazareth School in Nairobi, Kenya located in the middle of Nairobi's largest slum where 350,000 people struggle to survive. In facing the complexities of such extreme poverty, education can be one way to break the cycle, making OLN a place of refuge and hope for the 1,800 slum children enrolled. Please look for ways around campus to donate to this cause during Lent.

The Beggar-King

There was once a king who had no son and longed for an heir who would succeed him to the throne. So he posted a notice, inviting young men to apply to be considered for adoption into his family, to become his heir. All that he asked of the applicants was that they should love God and love their neighbor.

A poor peasant boy saw the notice, but he thought that he would have no chance of being adopted by the king because of the ragged clothes he wore. So he worked very hard, until he had just enough money to buy a new set of clothes. Wearing his new clothes, he then set off to the royal palace to apply for the position of the king's adopted son.

Now, as he was journeying towards the palace, the boy met a poor beggar on the road. The old man was shivering with cold, and the boy felt sorry for him and exchanged clothes with him.

As he was now back to wearing beggar's clothes, it hardly seemed worth going on towards the king's palace. However, having come so far already, the boy decided to keep going and at least see the king's palace from the outside.

When he arrived, he was greeted by scornful laughter and sneering remarks from the king's courtiers. Nevertheless, he was finally admitted into the presence of the king.

There was something strangely familiar about the king. At first, the boy couldn't work out what it was, and why he felt so at home in his presence. Then he realized that the king himself was wearing the clothes that he had given to the old beggar just a few hours ago along the road.

The king came down from his throne and embraced the boy, holding him close in his arms... 'Welcome, my son,' he said.
