JONATHAN WINTERS

Statement from the Citation for Jonathan Winters:

"Mr. Winters' comic art is Chaucerian in its broad, hardy, and impudent style; and, like the comedy of the Canterbury tales, it captures the essence of the human condition, so that, while we laugh, we know that our laughter is directed at our own absurdity. Aware of man's incongruities, Jonathan Winters finds the yokel in the philosopher and the simple in the sophisticate."

ANTHEM

On mountain high and hillside,
O'er meadow and through dell
In busy mart and hamlet,
Where hearts their story tell,
A clarion voice is ringing,
It rises, now it falls
Arouse, ye sons of Dayton,
Your Alma Mater calls.

U. D., we hear you calling,
Fidelity's the test,
Your stalwart sons all answer from North, South, East and West,
With measured tread advancing,
Our emblem full in view,
We sound your praise and pledge
Our loyalty to the Red and Blue.
