There are 10,000+ doorways to God, and only one from God to you. What's your doorway to God?

One door to God is through our participation in the Mass. We stand and symbolically process with the presider as we exhale the cares and anxieties that have brought us once again to pray and sing together. We walk with our gifts, lives, hopes, and dreams to the altar, expressed in the symbolism of the bread and wine at the Preparation of the Gifts procession. We physically journey together to receive the living God in the Communion procession. We exhale again, and walk out together, "Go, you are sent" to proclaim the Good News.

Another doorway to God is through Liturgical movement. Liturgical movement is nothing more than an expression of this prayerful journey. It is not for our entertainment, but rather, when used at appropriate processional times of the liturgy, it helps us to enter deeper into the mystery of our faith, the life, death, and resurrection of Christ.

Liturgical movement will be prayed at the 6pm Mass on April 13, Palm Sunday. If liturgical movement is your doorway to God, or you are interested in exploring this prayer form, please come to the workshop on Monday, April 7, from 6-8pm in the Chapel. Questions? Email ksales1@udayton.edu for more information.
