NEWS RELEASE
JOYCE CARTER NAMED NEW VICE PRESIDENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES, HELD SIMILAR POST AT FIFTH THIRD BANK

DAYTON, Ohio – Joyce Carter has been named vice president of human resources at the University of Dayton. For the past six years, she's served as vice president of human resources at Fifth Third Bank. She replaces Patricia Whitney, who retired.

At UD, she oversees a department of 20 employees who handle staffing, compensation, benefits, policies and procedures for more than 2,900 UD employees.

"Over the years, in my work at Fifth Third, I have had the opportunity to work with many people from the University, and they have been fabulous," Carter said. "Given the atmosphere, the collegiality and the opportunities for collaboration, I just knew this was the place I needed to be."

Carter first traveled to Dayton to visit her sister for a week in 1980, two years after she graduated from the University of Connecticut with a bachelor's degree in journalism. It was no short trip as she never moved back to Connecticut. Ohio became her home.

"I interviewed for a personnel job and soon found myself running a small company's human resources department," Carter said. "They decided to take a chance on me. I'm glad they did."

In the decades that followed, her resume expanded to include human resource positions at Children's Medical Center, Toledo Hospital, Wright State University and, most recently, Fifth Third Bank. She holds senior professional human resources certification and is a member of the Society for Human Resources Management, the College and University Personnel Association and University Business Officers.

The Beavercreek resident is a member of the Ronald McDonald House board of trustees and serves on the executive committee of the Dayton Boys and Girls Club. Carter and husband Rob have twin daughters Vanessa and Amanda, 12, who attend Ferguson Junior High in Beavercreek.
