Quote Of the Week

“
The universe unfolds in God, who fills it completely. Hence, there is a mystical meaning to be found in a leaf, in a mountain trail, in a dewdrop, in a poor person's face.
Pope Francis”

Pope Francis fever is everywhere! The Pew Research Center finds that nearly 90% of American Catholics have a favorable opinion of Pope Francis, putting him just a few percentage points behind Pope John Paul II at the height of his popularity. Even non-Catholics give him a 70% favorability rating.

Perhaps the reason for his popularity is his consistent theme of mercy. Not only does he preach about God's great mercy for all of us and how we are called to show mercy, but he also "walks the talk" in many personal merciful actions that make the news. We'll be seeing a lot more of him in the news with his up-coming trip to the U.S. at the end of this month. And his merciful approach toward the planet's environment is clear in his recent and much-discussed encyclical Laudato Si.

If you're one of those who can't get enough of the Papa, we hope you'll attend the panel discussion about the papal visit on Monday, September 14 at 7pm in KU Ballroom featuring Thomas Reese, SJ, of National Catholic Reporter. The following day at 12:30, our Table of Plenty lunch discussion will be on "The Pope and Politics." Register on-line. We also invite you to be part of our "watch party" during the Pope's address to Congress on Thursday, September 24 from 9:15-11:00am in the Hangar. We have two buses full of students who are going to the Papal Mass in Philadelphia on September 27. And students are starting a Journey group to read and discuss Pope Francis' Laudato Si. May this all make us a more mercy-filled community.
