Chances are, if you are holding this piece of paper and reading this article, you are in some way searching. Searching for a way to add something meaningful to your college experience, searching for a way to procrastinate on that paper you haven't started, or maybe you're just searching for hope that you haven't been able to find so far in your college career. No matter what brought you to Mass or what made your eyes wander to this article, UD Campus Ministry wants to help you search for the answers to your questions, big and small.

College is a difficult time when we hear many voices telling us to push ourselves and grow as individuals, but too often we search for support in that endeavor in places that can never fulfill us. One place that I have found hope in my ability to grow and change while developing my relationship with God is through the retreats that UD offers. We are extremely blessed to be a part of a community where challenging times meet faithful support and the result is a journey of personal growth we never knew we needed.

No matter where you might be in your relationship with your faith, UD's retreats never fail to meet you right where you are and encourage you in your search for growth and fulfillment. There are retreats that fit every schedule, need, and personality, so why not grab a friend and check one out? After all, UD will always be here when you get back! ### Black Catholic Mass

Sunday, November 8, 6pm

Immaculate Conception Chapel

All are welcome to this Mass honoring the contributions of African-Americans to the Catholic church. Bishop Braxton from the diocese of Belleville, IL will preside and preach at this Mass along with the choir from the Church of the Resurrection.

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our

Service Program of the Week: Gamma Epsilon Lambda

is a co-ed service fraternity focusing on leadership and service. They strive to help the community through a variety of service opportunities such as African Refugee Tutoring, CHEERS (Communities Helping Each and Everyone Reach Success) and many more organizations. All members meet bi-weekly on Tuesday evenings to discuss the happenings of both our fraternity and community. Each member aims to excel in leadership amongst themselves and others.

Quote Of the Week

Ours is indeed a grand work, a magnificent work, and if it is universal in scope, it is because we are missionaries of Mary, who says to us, 'Do whatever He tells you.' Blessed William Joseph Chaminade

Metamorphosis Sophomore Retreat

November 13-15, Maria Stein

This weekend retreat brings sophomores together to reflect on relationships, faith and life changes. Cost: $40 before October 30; $50 after. Sign up online. Questions? Contact Bridget Ebbert at bebbert1@udayton.edu or 229-1754.

SISTERS

Friday, October 30, ArtStreet, 8pm, Studio B

Sisters is a one-hour documentary that takes the audience into the life stories of five American nuns. It is a film about faith, hope, love and death, seen through the eyes of five women who have committed everything to the service of others in the deepest way. Without narration, their stories are told in the honest words and actions of the women themselves.

The Abbey of Gethsemani

Friday, November 6, ArtStreet, 8pm, Studio B

Morgan Atkinson's film captures beautifully the rhythms of monastic life at the Cistercian Abbey of Gethsemani. Weaving together individual interviews with extensive footage of the monks at work and at prayer, Gethsemani explores with respect, insight and appealing touches of humor both the unique vocation and the essential humanity of these contemporary representatives of an ancient, still vital tradition.

“Sowing Hope”

Hunger & Homelessness Month Events

“Poverty calls us to sow hope... Poverty is the flesh of the poor Jesus, in that child who is hungry, in the one who is sick, in those unjust social structures.” Pope Francis

Wednesday, October 28, 7pm, ArtStreet Creator Space

Dinner in the Desert: Come with an appetite for the unexpected, as we investigate the social realities of food access.
