OCTOBER • 1945
MARY SHAY NAMED ALUMNI SECRETARY

Mary Shay

The appointment of Miss Mary Shay as secretary of the University of Dayton Alumni Association was recently announced by Father George J. Renneker, S. M., president of the university. Miss Shay was graduated from U. D. in 1944 with the degree of bachelor of science in education.

She has served as secretary to the area coordinator and also to the University of Dayton's institutional representative in the U. S. Office of Education's engineering, science and management war training program. She also was director of the Americanization service of the Dayton Y. M. C. A., where she served as teacher and counselor to the foreign born seeking citizenship.

As alumni secretary she will be a member of the university's committee on public relations, of which Brother Edward Knust, S. M., is chairman, and she will be editor of the Alumnus.

Carter Returns

Jim Carter, former head basketball and assistant football coach at the University of Dayton has returned to the campus in the same capacity and assumed his duties October 1. Carter will be an instructor in health and physical education in addition to his duties in football, basketball and minor sports.

After having served for four years on the U. D. staff, Carter resigned in April 1943 to accept the position of recreational director of the Du Pont plant in Pasco, Wash. His return to the campus is coincidental with the decision of U. D. to resume intercollegiate basketball this winter.

He will also assist Harry C. Baujan, athletic director and head football coach with an expanded intramural program of sports this fall.

Over 1200 Enroll In U. D. Fall Term

Over 1200 students are enrolled in day and evening classes at U. D. for the fall term which began Sept. 17. Registration is about equally divided, 606 in day classes, 606 in night school. Over 110 discharged veterans are enrolled.

The largest freshman class since 1942 reported with over 260 students. Over 300 coeds are registered for day classes and 325 women students enrolled at night.

New faculty members include Brother Albert Rose, instructor in political science, and Brother John Lucier, chemistry instructor. Dr. Michael Grandy has returned to take up his duties in the physics lab. Father John Kenny, O. P., for the past several years associate professor of philosophy, has been given a leave of absence to study for his doctorate.

Summer Graduation

Thirty-two graduates were awarded degrees at commencement exercises at the close of the university's summer term Sunday, August 12, in the auditorium of the Albert Emanuel library. The president, Father George J. Renneker, conferred the degrees and delivered the principal address. Hubert A. Estabrook, Jr., vice-president of the class of '45, was valedictorian for his class.
HALLETT ABEND

The first season of the University Lectures is being inaugurated, Sunday, November 11, 1945 with the presentation of Hallett Abend. Mr. Abend, a distinguished author and lecturer, served as chief Far Eastern correspondent for the New York Times. He is an authority on the Pacific and the Far East. The title of the first lecture is “America's Stake in the Pacific.”

Prior to our entrance into the war, and feeling the impending crises, Mr. Abend toured the Pacific region that later fell into the hands of the Japanese. In November 1941, he predicted the war with Japan before Christmas.

The University Lectures, a group of five lectures is being presented to the public in Dayton in the ballroom of the Biltmore Hotel monthly on Sunday evenings at 8:15. Other speakers include Oskar Halecki, William Henry Chamberlin, Rev. James M. Gillis, C. S. P., and Frank J. Sheed. In presenting the University Lectures to the Alumni and public in Dayton, it is the desire that this series of lectures may become a regular feature of the university's educational program. The endorsement and support of the people of Dayton will be the determining factor in the continuance of the University Lecture series. Season tickets are available at the university. Bro. Elmer C. Lacker, assistant dean and acting head of the division of arts, who previously served as Alumni Secretary, is chairman of the lecture series.

ALUMNI

The ending of the war has found the list of Alumni Gold Stars increased to 68, including one woman. Ten new fatalities were reported during the summer months, and seven of our alumni are still listed as missing in action. The University joins the rest of the world in giving thanks for the cessation of hostilities, as well as in offering prayers for a lasting peace with justice and charity.

Pfc. James R. Barlow, ex '45, died in Percy Jones Hospital at Battle Creek, Mich., July 7. He enlisted at Fort Hayes, Columbus, O., May, 1943. After basic training at Camp Wolters, Tex., he was transferred to Camp Beale, Calif., and then to Fort Lawson, Seattle, Wash. From there he was sent to the Aleutians, where he spent about seven months at Dutch Harbor. After this he was attached to the Air Corps, Quarter-master's detachment in Alaska, stationed at Northway and Tok Junction for about five months. Jim was returning home on a 30-day furlough, when he took ill on the train between Chicago and Dayton. He was hospitalized at Patterson Field, from which he was transferred to Percy Jones Hospital. Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Barlow, Dayton.

Sgt. Robert C. Bratten, Jr., ex '46, died as the result of burns received from a gasoline explosion June 11 on the hospital ship U. S. S. Relief, and is buried with the Second Marine Division on Saipan in the Marianas. He joined the forces of the Marines in May 1943, taking his basic training at San Diego, Calif. Bob was selected for radar maintenance service. Upon completion of this training, he left for overseas. He served at Pearl Harbor, Midway, Eniwetok in the Marshalls, Tinian and Saipan in the Marianas and on Okinawa. Bob was enrolled in the business administration division of the university. Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Bratten, Dayton.

F/O Robert A. Brown, ex '42, met death in a mid-air explosion crash in a C-46 on a routine training flight last June in California. He was commissioned at Blytheville, Ark., June 1944. Prior to his army service, he was an instructor in the Civilian Pilot Training Program. He entered the Air Transport Command of the Army Air Forces, and then later the Ferry Command. Most of his service was in the United States and Canada, however, two trips were made to the South Pacific. Bob entered the University of Dayton in the business administration department in '38, and was interested in sports, especially football. His mother, Mrs. Alice T. Brown, Dayton, and six brothers survive.

Lt. Harry Bergman, ex '44, was killed in France in January. Harry applied for advanced R. O. T. C. in 1941, and was called to active duty in May, 1943. He received his commission as a 2nd Lt. in the Infantry at Fort Benning, Ga., in August 1944. Upon the completion of four months advanced training at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., he went overseas in Dec. 1944, and was presumed to be missing in action Jan. 2, 1945. In August he was officially declared killed in action by the war department. He was awarded the Purple Heart for bravery under enemy fire. He played varsity football while at U. D. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Bergman, Cincinnati, survive.

Pfc. Isabel S. Moore, WAC, '40, died at Percy Jones Hospital in Battle Creek, Michigan, on Sept. 13. A member of the Women's Army Corps, she was the first woman to be listed among our Gold Stars. Pfc. Moore enlisted in the Army August 14, 1944, and after training at Ft. Des Moines, Iowa, was assigned to Wakeman General Hospital at Camp Atterbury, Ind., as a medical department specialist. She was admitted to Percy Jones on June 30. Miss Moore was graduated and received her degree of Bachelor of Science in education. In addition to a sister, Mrs. R. H. Kastens, of Dayton, and a brother John D. Moore of Dayton, who is now with the Army in India, survivors include two aunts and an uncle in Peoria, Ill.

Lt. Richard L. Strugarek, '43, was killed in action June 20, on Okinawa. Dick was commissioned in June 1943 at Quantico, Va., and served with the first Marine Division. He had seen action on Cape Gloucester, New Briton, and Palau Island, where he was wounded, in addition to the eighty-one days he had served on Okinawa. He was enrolled in the education division at U.
